

Stephanie Young, Graduate of Nipmuc Regional High School in Upton, MA, Receives Scholarship

Miss Stephanie Young of Upton, MA received the first annual Christina Toala Memorial Scholarship presented by the Law Office of James P. Hentz on Tuesday, July 26th. The recent Nipmuc Regional High School graduate impressed Attorney James Hentz with her high academic standing and outstanding dedication to community service. Miss Young was a prominent member of the National Honors Society, a country-wide program for high school students who maintain a 3.0 GPA and perform a minimum of thirty hours of community service yearly. She went above and beyond these minimum standards to take Advanced Placement and Honors classes in which she achieved exceptional grades. She also participated in more community service projects than necessary, most notably giving up an entire week the summer before her senior year to volunteer at Camp Sunshine in Casco, ME for terminally ill children and their families.

While maintaining her high grades and helping the community, Miss Young also found time to partake in multiple extracurricular activities. She was a member of Nipmuc's Student Council throughout high school and became its president her senior year. She also danced at Diane's School of Dance where she performed in the 2010 Macy's Day Parade.

This fall, Miss Young plans to attend the University of Massachusetts Amherst where she will study International Business. Attorney James Hentz wishes her luck in her future endeavors. The Christina Toala Memorial Scholarship will be available this fall to seniors at both Nipmuc Regional High School and Blackstone Valley Regional Vocational Technical High School.
