

The Appellate Strategist

INSIGHTS ON APPELLATE ISSUES, TRIAL CONSULTATIONS, AND EVALUATING APPEALS

The Forgotten Election - Three California Supreme Court Justices Stand For Election Tomorrow

November 1, 2010 by Michael Walsh

With so much press devoted to political candidates and state propositions, there has been little attention to the three California Supreme Court justices who are standing for election tomorrow. Associate Justice Tani Gorre Cantil-Sakauye, currently sitting on the Third District Court of Appeal, is seeking confirmation of her nomination as the new Chief Justice, while Justices Ming W. Chin and Carlos R. Moreno are seeking to retain their existing positions on the Supreme Court. While a terse profile for all three justices is provided in the Voter's Guide supplied by the Secretary of State, more detailed profiles are available:

- Associate Justice Tani Gorre Cantil-Sakauye
 - Official Court Profile
 - Judgepedia
 - News America Media

- Justice Ming W. Chin
 - Official Court Profile
 - Judgepedia
 - Law.com

- Justice Carlos R. Moreno
 - Official Court Profile
 - Judgepedia
 - Our Previous Profile (as a potential nominee for the U.S. Supreme Court)