

Immigration Law Answers Blog

Posted at 11:54 AM on July 1, 2009 by Robert A. Kraft

Honduras Consular Section Closed July 1, 2009 - July 3, 2009

The U.S. Embassy in Honduras announced today that due to the political situation in Honduras, the Consular Section will be closed July 1, 2009 and July 2, 2009. Thus, all non-immigrant and immigrant visa appointments for July 1, 2009, and July 2, 2009, have been cancelled and applicants will be contacted directly for rescheduling appointments. In observance of the July 4, 2009, Independence Day Holiday, the Embassy was scheduled to be closed on July 3, 2009.

Services for U.S. citizens including regular passport applications, Consular Reports of Birth Abroad, notarials and Social Security services are unavailable. Emergency passport application and emergency services are available to U.S. citizens only.

To view the schedule announcement, please visit the U.S. Embassy in Honduras Web site.