An elderly woman suffered major head injuries in a Woodland car accident on Tuesday afternoon. The unidentified woman was exiting a parking lot at 50 W. Main Street when her white Honda was hit by a gray four-door sedan traveling westbound. The driver of the Honda suffered a large head wound and was taken by CALSTAR helicopter to the U.C. Davis Medical Center in Sacramento. The cause of this Woodland auto collision is under investigation.

We do not know who was responsible for causing this Woodland accident. The police report may provide some of the information needed to determine who was at fault. However, follow up investigation is often necessary to get all of the relevant details, including witness statements and physical evidence at the scene, to determine which driver was entirely or mostly at fault. In some cases, this information must be evaluated by an accident reconstruction expert.

Anyone seriously injured in an auto accident has a number of serious issues to deal with. First, legal responsibility for the collision must be determined. Sometimes that requires investigation beyond what is contained in the police report.

Second, the medical bills must be paid. Even if there is health insurance to pay for the bills initially, the health insurance company will likely seek reimbursement from any liability insurance recovery. That means that the health insurance company will be competing for money that otherwise would go to the injured victim.

Third, even in apparently straight forward cases, insurance companies will do whatever they can to avoid paying fair compensation for not only medical bills, but lost income and pain and suffering as well.

Because of these and many other issues, injury victims an involved in a injury accident like this are strongly urged to consult with an experienced Woodland Personal Injury Attorney who will make sure that your rights are protected and that you are dealt with fairly.
