First Quarter 2010 Illinois Nursing Home Violations Released

Posted at 5:53 AM on June 16, 2010 by Jonathan Rosenfeld

I think one of the best method's in evaluating the state of nursing home performance within each state is to look at the quarterly ratings from the Department of Health.

Though nationalized star-ratings of nursing homes can be a helpful factor in the evaluation of a facility, a far more accurate assessment of nursing homes can be gleaned from evaluating both the facilities individualized long-term track record and the accompanying survey findings.

In Illinois, our State's Department of Health does a really good job maintaining its website and providing information regarding nursing home violations throughout the state. Though there many links to surveys at particular facilities are provided on-line, other survey results can be request via a Freedom of Information (FOIA) request from the state as well.

Though certainly not the most interestingly written pieces around-- nor are they intended to be-- the nursing home inspection reports, referred to as 'surveys', provide the most accurate accounting of the living conditions in each facility. Surveys are generally conducted by state-trained investigators who may be called in to a facility for a specific investigation or to simply to conduct an annual review.

Utilizing standardized forms, the surveys indicate:

- Name and location of each facility
- Date survey was performed
- Summary of each deficiency
- A plan of correction (if one was provided) by each facility

In reviewing the First Quarter 2010 survey results, 33 Illinois nursing homes received some type of notice of violation and 19 of the offending facilities received fines.

The amount of the fine imposed on the facility is dependent upon the nature of the facilities conduct as well as if there was an injury to the patient.

First Quarter Nursing Home Fines:

$500 = 2

$5,000 = 2

$10,000 = 7

$15,000 = 2

$20,000 = 6

$23,000 = 1

$30,000 = 2

$35,000 = 2

This quarter the Department of Health handed out $384,000 in fines to 23 facilities. The lowest fine, $500 was to South Lawn Sheltered Care and the highest fine ($35,000) went to White Hall Nursing & Rehab Center and Barry Community Care Center.

Incidentally, White Hall has the dubious distinction of being cited two times within the quarter (along with South Lawn Sheltered Care).

As usual, we will be detailing the specific incidents related to the fines at various nursing homes in upcoming Nursing Homes Abuse Blog entries.
