AFFIDAVIT OF SARA PFROMMER
PURSUANT TO S.D.N.Y. LOCAL BANKRUPTCY RULES 1007-2
AND 9077-1 AND IN SUPPORT OF DEBTORS' FIRST DAY MOTIONS

STATE OF NEW YORK)
) SS: COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

SARA PFROMMER, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am the Chief Restructuring Officer and General Counsel of Asset Resolution LLC (“ARC”) and fourteen subsidiary LLCs more fully described herein (the “Subsidiary LLCs” and together with ARC, the “Debtors”) that have each filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of Title 11, United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”). In accordance with S.D.N.Y. Local Bankruptcy Rules (“L.B.R.”) 1007-2 and 9077-1, I submit this affidavit (“Affidavit”) in connection with the petitions for an order for relief entered by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, on October 14, 2009 (“Petition Date”) and in support of the Debtors’ First Day Motions (defined herein).

2. I am generally familiar with the business and financial condition of the Debtors. A copy of the resolutions of ARC and of each of the Subsidiary LLCs, authorizing the commencement of each of their respective Chapter 11 cases (the “Cases”) is annexed to each of the respective petitions. Each of the Subsidiary LLCs was originally established to hold real property that had been obtained through foreclosure by ARC or its predecessor.¹ An organizational chart of ARC and its subsidiaries is attached as Exhibit A. Unless otherwise indicated, all financial information contained herein is presented on an estimated and unaudited basis.

Preliminary Statement

3. As discussed in greater detail herein, the Debtors are the successors by foreclosure of certain rights attributed to defaulted commercial mortgage loans. They have sought Chapter 11 protection because their ability to effectively service the defaulted commercial mortgage loans has been crippled by highly acrimonious litigation commenced by a small group of Direct Lenders (defined below) involving only a narrow range of interests among a significantly larger group of stakeholders.

4. The Debtors believe that only in the context of a Chapter 11 proceeding can the interests of all stakeholders be fully, efficiently, and fairly addressed. The Debtors therefore intend to utilize the powers and protections granted to a debtor in possession under the Bankruptcy Code to maximize the value of the assets for the benefit of all stakeholders in accordance with their ¹Through sale or other resolution, four of the Subsidiary LLCs now instead own some residual right as a result of the relative priority under applicable law.

A. Required Contents of Affidavit

(i) Prepetition Operations and Initial Wind-Down

5. ARC is organized as a Delaware limited liability company. Its affairs are governed by an operating agreement dated as of September 29, 2008.

6. Each Subsidiary LLC is also organized as a limited liability company with ARC as the sole managing member. The affairs of each of the Subsidiary LLCs are governed by operating agreements and organized in the jurisdictions identified in Exhibit B annexed hereto.

7. ARC has its principal place of business at 333 Seventh Avenue, New York, New York 10001 and has conducted business at that location since September of 2008. ARC was formed by Silar Advisors, L.P. (“Silar”) for the purpose of taking title to certain real property, contract servicing and other contractual rights that were pledged as collateral for a $67 million loan to an entity known as Compass USA SPE LLC (“Compass”). The purpose of the loan was to finance Compass’s acquisition of the pledged assets through a Section 363 sale in the bankruptcy of USA Commercial Mortgage Company (“USACM”). In September of 2008, Compass defaulted on its repayment obligations with respect to the $67 million loan and Silar foreclosed. All of these transactions are described in further detail below.

8. On October 13, 2009, ARC and each of the Subsidiary LLCs conducted meetings and resolved to commence these Chapter 11 cases. The purpose of the Chapter 11 cases is to allow ARC to conduct its obligations as servicer of various loans and to allow all the Debtors to:

a) propose and effectuate resolutions to liquidate or otherwise monetize the various real property

assets; b) to protect the rights of the more than 2,400 individual investors in those assets, who face not only continuing diminution of value of their investment but also potential and actual liability with respect to the investments; and c) to protect the rights of ARC to collect its servicing fees and be reimbursed for servicing advances that it acquired or has previously made for the benefit of the properties. Pursuant to the resolutions, ARC and each of the Subsidiary LLCs resolved to also retain professionals, consultants and brokers to assist them in the servicing of the properties and the resolution of the myriad of problems and issues relating to the wind-down and disposition of the properties and the various claims that have been asserted by and against the various constituent groups involved in the process.

(ii) Background; How ARC Came Into Existence and The Nature of Its Assets

9. The events that led to the filing of the Cases can be traced back to the early part of this decade, when USACM decided to take advantage of the unprecedented boom in real estate by entering into the business of soliciting investments from individuals (the “Direct Lenders”) for the purpose of placing those investments into commercial real estate loans throughout the United States.

a. USCAM and Its Business of Placing Speculative High Risk Investments

10. During a time in which conservative investments were yielding 1% to 2% annual returns, the Direct Lenders were attracted by USACM’s promise of exceptionally high returns on their investments, in the range of 12% to 16%, and the promise that the investments would be “safely” secured by real estate collateral.

11. USACM was a “hard money lender” whose business consisted of soliciting investments from Direct Lenders and then in turn placing those investments into speculative, short-term high interest commercial real estate loans. These loans included acquisition, development, construction, bridge or interim loans secured primarily by first priority liens on undeveloped residential and commercial developments located across the United States. These were never “safe” investments and became especially unsafe when the real estate market began to collapse. The viability of the investments was further undermined by the fact that the principals of USACM (and quite possibly also some of the larger Direct Lenders and other related parties) were engaged in fraud.

12. USACM structured the commercial loans it placed by creating a fractionalized interest in real property collateral pledged by the underlying developer/borrower for each Direct Lender that was placed into the loan. There were frequently as many as 200-300 Direct Lenders placed into each loan. USACM and its affiliated funds claimed that at one time the amount of investments under its management approached $1 billion.

13. USACM serviced the commercial real estate loans on behalf of the Direct Lenders pursuant to a short form Loan Servicing Agreement (an “LSA”) with each Direct Lender that provided for the servicer to collect both accrued and future income consisting of: (a) a base servicing fee payable monthly at a rate equal to 1% to 3% of the unpaid principal balance; plus (b) default rate interest; plus (c) late charges; plus (d) exit fees; plus (e) deferred origination fees (collectively, “USACM Servicing Fees”).

b. USACM Files for Bankruptcy

14. On April 13, 2006, USACM and its affiliates filed for protection under Chapter 11, Case No. 06-10725(LBR) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Nevada (“USACM Bankruptcy Case”). The filing was prompted by, among other things, the onset of a decline in commercial real estate values unprecedented in United States history and by an ongoing investigation of securities law violations by all of the USACM related companies. Tom Allison of Mesirow Financial Investment Corporation was appointed Chief Restructuring Officer of the USACM debtors at the time of the filing.

15. In January of 2007, USACM confirmed a plan of reorganization that would not have been feasible without the proceeds from the sale, pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, of the USACM Servicing Fees and fractionalized interests, free and clear of all claims that any Direct Lender had against USACM. In the pleadings filed in conjunction with plan confirmation and contemplated sale, Mesirow acknowledged that it had already disposed of the properties that were readily amenable to resolution and that the remainder of the loans would be very difficult to administer and resolve and would require dedication of substantial resources and efforts on the part of the proposed purchaser.

16. A group of Direct Lenders objected to the confirmation of the plan and specifically to the sale of the servicing rights to Compass and the provisions regarding the sale contained in the court-approved asset purchase agreement, but their objections were overruled. As set forth below, this group of objecting Direct Lenders has continuously attempted to undermine the sale and interfere with the provisions of the Confirmation Order and the asset purchase agreement, both before and after the confirmation of the plan and the completion of the transfers contemplated under the plan became final. This small group of protesters is hereinafter referred to as the “Dissenting Direct Lenders.”

c. USACM Sells Servicing and Other Rights To Compass, Financed by Silar

17. The auction sale pursuant to the confirmed plan was memorialized in an Asset Purchase Agreement (the “APA”) dated February 16, 2007. Under the APA, Compass paid $67 million for: (a) certain fractionalized direct lender interests that were owned by USACM in the various real properties; (b) the servicing rights under the LSAs; and (c) the right to collect the USACM Servicing Fees. Silar provided the financing for the acquisition and obtained a pledge of the acquired USACM Servicing Fees and related rights as collateral.

18. The form of APA was approved in the USACM Bankruptcy Case and included several schedules for the USACM servicing fees that had accrued, and the rate at which they would continue to accrue on a monthly basis. The Order Confirming the [USACM] Debtors’ Third Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization, as Modified Herein (the “USACM Confirmation Order”), entered on January 8, 2008 [Docket No. 2376 in the USACM Bankruptcy Case] also expressly stated: “[f]ollowing the Closing, no holder of an Interest in the Sellers shall interfere with the Asset Purchaser’s title to or use and enjoyment of the Acquired Assets based on or related to such Interest, or any actions that the Sellers may take in their Chapter 11 cases (capitalized terms as defined therein).” USACM Confirmation Order ¶ 25.

19. There is no doubt that the Direct Lenders who invested with USACM lost vast amounts of money because of the highly speculative nature of the USACM portfolio and the fact that these particular types of commercial real estate loans were especially vulnerable to the collapse of the real estate market that began as early as 2006 and continues to the present. These losses were further exacerbated by the fact that there was admitted underlying fraud on the part of at least one of USACM’s principals, Joseph Milanowski, who has been tentatively sentenced to 12 years in prison pursuant to a plea bargain that has not yet been finalized and may result in an even longer prison term. Investigations continue with respect to other possible fraudulent acts by USACM and its principals and related parties.

d. Dissenting Direct Lenders Interference with Compass's Rights Under the Confirmed Plan and the APA

20. Even before the confirmation of the USACM plan and the closing of the sale under the APA, and angered by the almost complete loss of their investments at the hands of USACM, the Dissenting Direct Lenders began a campaign to take over the servicing rights themselves and deprive Compass of the benefit of its acquisition. Although the Dissenting Direct Lenders have claimed the right to service themselves, they have never identified how they intended to go about doing this, or how much it would cost, or the identity of any person or entity who was both willing and able to handle the massive effort required to service more than 50 defaulted commercial real estate loans.

21. As part of this campaign, the Dissenting Direct Lenders insisted that they had successfully terminated Compass as servicer and began communicating directly with various borrowers, interfering with Compass's ability to exercise the servicing rights it had obtained under the plan. The Dissenting Direct Lenders were subsequently told by the Bankruptcy Court that this behavior violated the USACM Confirmation Order and related orders and directed them to stop. A contempt order was issued to force the suspension of the prohibited conduct, but only after a 2-day evidentiary hearing.

22. In order to resolve the issue created by the Dissenting Direct Lenders, Compass brought motions in the USACM Bankruptcy Case for orders enforcing the USACM Confirmation Order. Certain limited liability companies that had been formed by the Dissenting Direct Lenders commenced litigation in the federal district court in Reno, Nevada, contending, among other things, that Compass should be terminated as servicer, to which Compass asserted counterclaims for interference with the servicing rights and diminution in the value of the purchased assets. All of these actions ended up in the federal district court in Las Vegas, Nevada, where they were consolidated and are collectively pending as Case No. 07-0892 (the “Nevada Litigation”).

e. Compass Fails and Silar Forecloses on Its Collateral

23. Through their various actions, the Dissenting Direct Lenders succeeded in completely destroying the value of Compass, whose principals had invested nearly $30 million in addition to the money they had borrowed to finance the acquisition. This investment provided, among other things, servicing advances to pay insurance and taxes for the properties which Compass was servicing, for the protection not only of its own interests but also for the protection of all of the holders of fractionalized investor interests in the underlying real estate collateral.

24. Because the actions of the Plaintiff Direct Lenders effectively stopped Compass from realizing any income from the assets it had acquired from USACM, Compass was unable to repay its obligations to Silar under the financing arrangements, and on September 26, 2008, Silar exercised its rights to foreclose upon the Compass collateral. This foreclosure was conducted under New York law and immediately confirmed an almost $30 million loss to Compass.

25. In order to effectuate the foreclosure, Silar formed a limited liability company, Repo Resolution LLC, which by Certificate of Name Change filed on September 26, 2008, became Asset Resolution LLC, the lead debtor herein. ARC took title to all of the pledged Compass assets including: (a) servicing rights, (b) the rights to collect the USACM Servicing Fees; (c) fractionalized direct lender interests directly owned by Compass in various of the real properties; and (d) the single purpose entities that had been formed to hold title to properties on which Compass had foreclosed.

(iii) Events Leading to the Commencement of these Cases

a. Dissenting Direct Lenders Continue Their Campaign Against ARC

26. Following ARC's acquisition of the former USACM/Compass assets through foreclosure, the Dissenting Direct Lenders began a campaign to duplicate the "success" they had achieved in shutting down Compass, by interfering with the proper servicing of the assets in order to prevent ARC from collecting the servicing fees that is entitled to as successor-in-interest to Compass, and as guaranteed by the USACM Confirmation Order. This group has demonstrated that it will never agree to any solution proposed by ARC for any of the properties.

27. During the time that ARC has been servicing the portfolio, and in furtherance of their litigation goals, the Dissenting Direct Lenders have rejected, and have encouraged other Direct Lenders to reject, sales offers and have refused, and encouraged others to refuse, to honor their contractual obligations under the LSAs to fund unpaid taxes and critical repairs, with the specific and express strategy of impairing ARC's rights as servicer. This strategy unfortunately also creates serious adverse consequences not just for ARC, but for all the Direct Lenders with an interest in any given loan.

b. Dissenting Direct Lenders Blow Up A Brokered Settlement of All Issues

28. On July 11, 2008, a receiver was appointed in the Nevada Litigation to review the rights and claims of the various parties and to broker a settlement. The receiver, Tom Grimmer, spent several months reviewing the issues and negotiated a settlement with Silar and ARC that he recommended to the court. The Dissenting Direct Lenders, however, opposed the settlement and through an email, blog and robo-dialer campaign, persuaded other Direct Lenders to also reject the settlement. ARC contended, and the Receiver acknowledged, that much of the information contained in these blogs and emails was false and misleading.

29. On January 20, 2009, the judge in the Nevada Litigation proclaimed the settlement dead, discharged the receiver and instructed any Direct Lender who wished to intervene in the Nevada Litigation to do so forthwith.

30. Only 46 of the Dissenting Direct Lenders, whose outstanding interests are a mere 4.55% of the total Direct Lenders loans by amount, have elected to intervene and become plaintiffs in the Nevada Litigation (the “Plaintiff Direct Lenders”). Of those 46 Dissenting Direct Lenders, eight are related parties. The Plaintiff Direct Lenders and the Dissenting Direct Lenders are for the most part the same, although some members of the Dissenting Direct Lender group elected not to intervene in the Nevada Litigation and therefore the two groups are not completely identical.

c. Dissenting Direct Lenders Interfere With the Marketing And Sale of the Gess Property in Houston

31. One specific example of the Plaintiff Direct Lenders’ willingness to sacrifice the value of their own investments in pursuit of their perceived claims against Silar and ARC is the “Gess Property.” The Gess Property is an 810 unit apartment complex in Houston that was facing tax foreclosure and condemnation because the borrower had defaulted on its obligations and the Direct Lenders with interests in that loan had declined to comply with capital calls to fund the unpaid taxes.

32. While the Gess Property was still being serviced by Compass, Compass obtained an offer to purchase the property for $16.25 million. The Direct Lenders blocked the proposed sale at $16.25 million on the uninformed belief that the property was worth more.

33. Thereafter, property values continued to plummet and the Gess situation was becoming even more precarious, with the impending tax lien foreclosure further complicated by a threat of condemnation by the City of Houston. The servicer continued to market the property, however, obtaining a new offer for $11 million. This offer was also rejected.

34. In May of 2009, following the ARC foreclosure, ARC as servicer believed that the Gess property was in imminent danger of being completely lost to either a tax lien foreclosure or condemnation by the City of Houston, either of which would also have dispossessed the over 400 tenants in the property. In May of 2009, therefore, ARC filed an emergency motion in the Nevada Litigation asking the Court to approve yet a third offer for the Gess Property, this time in the amount of $8.5 million.

35. The Plaintiff Direct Lenders continued to object to an $8.5 million cash sale because they wanted to enter into a joint venture with the purchaser rather than cash out their interests at the proposed price. After fourteen hearings, the Nevada Court approved the transfer to the joint venture, in a transaction that ARC, as servicer, believed to be far riskier and less economically advantageous than other alternatives.

36. In its order approving the transfer, the Nevada Court also drastically reduced ARC's fees from the amounts pursuant to the USACM Confirmation Order for the over two years of post-default servicing, including the hiring and supervision of a property manager, the retention of a broker who obtained three viable offers for the property and dealing with the multiple objections of the Plaintiff Direct Lenders. The Court instead approved a servicing fee of only $94,000 and refused to allow any of the other fees that were set forth in the LSAs.

37. Over the objection of ARC, the Nevada Court then permitted the sales proceeds and joint venture interests to be distributed to the 285 direct lenders with interests in the

d. Dissenting Direct Lenders Interfere with the Sale of the Anchor B Property in Texas

38. A second example of the difficulties created by the Plaintiff Direct Lenders involves a loan known as the “Anchor B” loan. This property, an empty big-box store in Houston, Texas, had been sold at a tax lien foreclosure sale in May of 2009 because the Direct Lenders in that loan had refused to fund the payment of the delinquent real property taxes. ARC nonetheless found a broker for the property, who in turn found a buyer who was willing to pay $1.9 million for the property through Anchor B’s redemption rights.

39. On October 1, 2009, the Plaintiff Direct Lenders made an emergency motion to stop this sale, which had been approved as required under the LSAs by the holders of more than 51% of the Direct Lender interests in the property (ARC itself held 33% of the Direct Lender interests in Anchor B). The sale had closed before the TRO was filed, but ARC nonetheless had to incur the expense of going into court and defending against the Plaintiff Direct Lenders’ actions. If the sale had not closed, the value of the property would have been lost completely up on the expiration of the six month redemption period for the foreclosed taxes.

e. Bankruptcy Is The Only Mechanism Through Which All of the Property Management and Other Outstanding Issues Can Be Resolved

40. The highly litigious positions taken by the Plaintiff Direct Lenders have made it impossible for ARC to service the loans. Although the loans are in default, ARC has not been able to foreclose on any of the properties because it has not been able to identify a title insurance company will conduct the foreclosure sale and insure subsequent title, in light of the disputes. The Direct Lenders have refused to honor capital calls, which has resulted in the loss of at least one property to tax foreclosure and others are in danger of that same fate. ARC cannot negotiate any short sales without the consent of at least 51% of the Direct Lenders in any given property, and the Plaintiff Direct Lenders have resolved to try to block every proposal. ARC's ability to retain brokers to market any of the properties is severely impaired but notwithstanding the numerous difficulties involved, ARC has persuaded Situs, Inc. ("Situs") to undertake the real property marketing efforts. ARC will file an application for approval of ARC's retention of Situs with this Court.

41. The Nevada court both will not and cannot resolve these issues within the context of the Nevada Litigation.

42. ARC asked the Nevada court to appoint a receiver over all the direct lender assets and the servicing rights, with expanded powers to administer the properties, borrow money to maintain and preserve the properties with a priority right of repayment and other similar authorizations. On August 16, 2009, the court denied the motion after it was opposed by the Plaintiff Direct Lenders.

43. There is also a major question regarding the ability of the Nevada court to resolve all of the outstanding issues and disputes. The Plaintiff Direct Lenders, as a group, constitute fewer than two percent of all the Direct Lenders in number and hold only 4.55% of all Direct Lender interests in amount. On the other hand, in respect of its Direct Lender interests alone (and without taking into account any of the servicing or other fees to which it is entitled), ARC holds 5.77% of the Direct Lender interests in the properties and there are over 2,400 holders of Direct Lender interests in the various properties who are not parties to the Nevada Litigation. Finally, the owners of the various real properties (the "borrowers" under the original USACM arranged loans) are also not parties to the Nevada Litigation, nor are the taxing authorities holding delinquent tax liens or other third parties with claims against the properties whose interests must be resolved.

44. The defense of the Nevada Litigation has cost ARC and its predecessor over $7 million so far, with no hope that the expenditure of this or any other sum of money will resolve the multitude of issues and interests involved. The only practical mechanism to deal with the resolution of everyone's rights and interests in the various assets and to provide for orderly and efficient liquidation of the various real properties, is the use of the particular powers and procedures granted to a debtor-in-possession under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, ARC and each of the Subsidiary LLCs have determined to seek the protection of Chapter 11 in order to effectuate the orderly administration of all of the assets, and the complete resolution of all of the various competing claims and interests therein.

(iv) Organizational Structure and Management.

45. As stated above, ARC is a limited liability company, organized under the laws of the State of Delaware. The Subsidiary LLCs are also limited liability companies organized under the laws of various states as described in Exhibit A hereto. The principal place of business of all of the Debtors is 333 Seventh Avenue, New York, New York 10001.

46. ARC and the Subsidiary LLCs will be managed on a daily basis by Sara Pfrommer, Chief Restructuring Officer and General Counsel. Ms. Pfrommer has been involved in hundreds of bankruptcy cases during her thirty year career as a lawyer with the national firms of McDermott, Will & Emery; Weil, Gotshal & Manges and Sheppard Mullin Richter & Hampton. She was retained by ARC in August 2009 to review the Nevada Litigation and all of the outstanding issues with respect to property management and related claims and agreed to act as CRO and General Counsel for the debtors when the entities determined that it was necessary to seek bankruptcy protection.

47. In order to conduct the day-to-day servicing of the loans, ARC entered into a contract with Servicing Oversight Solutions, LLC (“SOS”), whose principal offices are in Farmington, Connecticut. SOS is an affiliate of ARC, in that it is wholly owned by Silar Advisors, L.P. ARC and the Subsidiary LLCs propose to continue the employment of SOS for the marketing and administration of the portfolio during the course of these Chapter 11 cases.

(v) Debtors’ Cases Not Originally Commenced Under Chapter 7 or Chapter 13

48. These cases were not originally commenced under chapter 7 or chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, L.B.R. 1007-2(a)(2) is inapplicable.

(vi) Pre-petition Committees and Holders of the Twenty Largest Unsecured Claims

49. The Debtors are unaware of the formation of any committee prior to the Petition Date. A list setting forth the each Debtor’s twenty (20) largest unsecured creditors of the Debtor is attached as Exhibit C. As required by L.B.R. 1007(a)(4), Exhibit C includes the creditors’ names, addresses, telephone numbers (for persons familiar with the account, if available), amount of each claim, and an indication of whether the claims are contingent, unliquidated, disputed, or partially secured.

(vii) Holders of Five Largest Secured Claims

50. The only secured creditor of ARC is Silar Advisors, L.P., with respect to a $3.5 million loan to ARC to preserve certain valuable water rights in the San Joaquin Valley of California that were in jeopardy of foreclosure by a senior lender whose position was redeemed with the Silar advance.

(viii) Summary of the Debtor's Assets and Liabilities

51. The Debtors are filing with their petitions their Schedules of Assets and Liabilities and Statements of Financial Affairs (collectively, the "Schedules") in satisfaction of L.B.R. 1007-2(a)(6). The Debtors reserve the right to amend the Schedules.

52. The Debtors believe that they are solvent on a balance sheet basis. On the Schedules submitted with their petitions, each of the Debtors has placed conservative valuations on various assets listed therein. Overall, the collective Debtors estimate that the value of their servicing rights and real property interest is substantial, but their exact value cannot be determined until those assets have been liquidated. In addition, the Debtors have assigned a $10 million to $50 million value to various litigation claims that may be pursued on behalf of the Debtors, the exact amount of which will turn not only on the successful assertion of the various claims but also on the ability to collect up any judgment in respect thereof.

53. ARC and the Subsidiary LLCs have list on Schedule F of their respective Schedules all of the Direct Lenders in every loan, in order to ensure that each one of them receives all of the appropriate notices and will have the opportunity to be fully included in the resolution of these Cases. Some of the Direct Lenders have asserted tort or contract claims against ARC and are therefore contingent and unliquidated creditors of ARC. For the most part, however, the Direct Lenders are not direct creditors of the Debtors, but rather have claims and interests that are limited in recourse to the properties that are held and administered by ARC, as servicer.

54. Additionally, ARC currently holds $10,771,332 in an account for the benefit of itself and various direct lenders. The money in this account consists of proceeds from the sale of various real properties by Compass. ARC, as successor-in-interest to Compass' rights in this account, claims that it is entitled to all such funds in respect of servicing fees and the right to collect servicing fees acquired from the USACM bankruptcy. The Direct Lenders claim that ARC is not entitled to any of such funds. The validity, priority and extent of the interests of various claimants to this fund will be one of the key issues that must be resolved in the course of these bankruptcy cases.

(ix) Debtors' Securities

55. Due to the organizational structure of the Debtors' business, L.B.R. 1007-2(a)(7) is not applicable.

(x) Property in Possession or Custody of Custodian

56. Other than as discussed in the next paragraphs, the Debtors have no property in possession or custody of any custodian, public officer, mortgagee, pledgee, assignee of rents or secured creditor, or agent for any such entity.

57. There are proceeds that were generated from the sale of the Gess property (as described in paragraphs 31 through 37 above in the amount of $1,590,000 that are currently being held by ARC's counsel in the Nevada Litigation, Greenberg Traurig LLP. Additionally, there is $404,320 resulting from the sale of water rights owned by Fox Hills SPE LLC is being held by Compass' former counsel, Sheppard Mullin Richter & Hampton. Finally, the management companies for three of the income producing properties – Palm Harbor, Gramercy and the Gardens Timeshare retained collections from rents and sales for periodic remittance to ARC. The exact amounts retained by these companies cannot be determined exactly under ARC has completed its reconciliation with the respective management companies as of the Petition Date.

(xi) Premises Where the Debtors Conduct Business

58. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors' principal place of business is 333 Seventh Avenue, New York, New York (the "New York Office").

(xii) Location of Debtor's Substantial Assets and Books and Records

59. The location of the Debtors' assets is identified in large measure on the Schedules filed in this case. The majority of the Debtors' general books and records are maintained on premises at the New York Office. There are additional books and records relating to specific properties that are maintained at the offices of ARC's servicing agent, SOS, whose offices are located at 11 Talcott Notch Road, Farmington, Connecticut.

(xiii) Threatened or Pending Actions Against the Debtor

60. As noted above, ARC is currently a defendant and a counter-claimant in the Nevada Litigation. The claims asserted against ARC go to the very heart of the value and extent of the Debtors' assets and as such will be stayed by the application of Section 362 upon the filing of the Debtors' cases. The Subsidiary LLCs are not subject to any pending or threatened litigation.

(xiii) The Debtors' Senior Management

61. The Debtors' senior management consists of the following:

Name	Position With Debtors
Sara Pfrommer	CRO and General Counsel

(xiv) Compensation of Management/Budget for Ongoing Operations

62. In accordance with L.B.R. 1007-2(b)(1), the amounts paid and proposed to be paid for the thirty (30) day period following the Petition Date for employees of the Debtors is $0.00.

63. In accordance with L.B.R. 1007-2(b)(2), Sara Pfrommer, as Chief Restructuring Officer, is to be paid $35,000 per month.

64. In accordance with L.B.R. 1007-2(b)(3), a projection of cash receipts and disbursements for the next 30, 60 and 90 days is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

65. Although ARC has substantial assets, none of these assets is immediately liquid. Accordingly, ARC intends to obtain debtor-in-possession financing in order to fund its operations during the reorganization period, as described in more detail in paragraph 87, below.

B. Additional Information In Support of First Day Motions

66. In accordance with L.B.R. 1007-2(b), the Debtors represent that they intend to continue in the management of their properties as debtors and debtors in possession pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 1107 and 1108.

67. In order to continue operating effectively as debtors in possession, the Debtors require approval of certain transactions and dealings immediately. Therefore, the Debtors are moving this Court for approval of certain “first day” matters in the instant Case (collectively the “First Day Motions”). The following First Day Motions require immediate approval in order for the Debtor’s business to continue uninterrupted during the immediate postpetition period.

(i) Joint Administration

68. The Debtors will seek joint administration of these Chapter 11 cases pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

69. The Debtors believe that these cases should be administered jointly because the business operations of the Debtors are closely related and they share general administration. Entry of an order directing joint administration of these cases will obviate the need for duplicative notices, applications and orders, and thereby save considerable time and expense for the Debtors and their estates.

70. The rights of the respective creditors of the Debtors will not be adversely affected by the proposed joint administration of these cases because each creditor may still file its claim against a particular estate. In fact, the rights of all creditors will be enhanced by the reduction in costs resulting from joint administration. The Court will also be relieved of the burden of entering duplicative orders and maintaining duplicative files. Furthermore, supervision of the administrative aspects of the chapter 11 cases by the Office of the United States Trustee will be simplified.

71. By reason of the foregoing, the Debtors submit that the interests of the Debtors, their creditors and their estates would best be served by joint administration of the above-captioned cases.

(ii) Retention of Professionals

72. The retention of Chapter 11 professionals is essential to the Debtors' reorganization efforts. Concurrently with this filing, the Debtors are seeking to retain and employ Klestadt & Winters, LLP, as general bankruptcy counsel pursuant to section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors believe that Klestadt & Winters, LLP is well qualified to provide the services contemplated by its retention application, and that the services to be provided by Klestadt & Winters, LLP are necessary for the Debtors' successful reorganization efforts.

73. The Debtors are also seeking to retain and employ Bryan Cave, LLP as special corporate, real estate, and litigation counsel pursuant to section 327(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. Because of its expertise and institutional knowledge of the Debtors' operating history, its business and litigation matters, Bryan Cave, LLP is uniquely situated to advise and assist the Debtors in the preparation of their schedules and statement of financial affairs, and with respect to various corporate, real estate and litigation matters as described in its retention application. Klestadt & Winters, LLP and Bryan Cave, LLP will coordinate to avoid unnecessary duplication of services.

74. It is contemplated that the Debtors will be required to retain additional special counsel to represent them for limited purposes, such as foreclosures with respect to the loans being serviced.

75. The Debtors have reviewed the applications and affidavits submitted in support of the retention of the above referenced professionals. The Debtors have determined that the services of the above referenced professionals are necessary and beneficial to the Debtors' continuing operations and requests that this Court approve the same.

76. The Debtors may determine that they require the assistance of additional professionals in conjunction with the servicing and wind-down of the real properties, and will apply for permission to retain such professionals as and when needed, pursuant to the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code.

(iii) Claims and Noticing Agent

77. The Debtors have selected Epiq Systems as as the official notice, claims and balloting agent ("Claims Agent"). The Debtors estimate that there are in excess of 2,500 creditors and parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases, many of which are expected to file proofs of claim. This high number of creditors and parties-in-interest in this case would impose a heavy administrative burden on the Clerk's Office.

78. It is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates and the creditors for the estate to retain a professional Claims Agent to provide administrative assistance to the Clerk's Office in these Cases because such an agent has already developed efficient and cost-effective methods for administering such cases.

(iv) Motion to Approve Notice Procedures.

79. The Debtors will seek authority, pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 1015(c) and 9007, to implement certain notice procedures (the “Notice Procedures”) in connection with the administration of these chapter 11 cases.

80. Thousands of parties in interest may be entitled to receive notice in these cases. Providing notice of all motions, pleadings, applications, and other requests for relief (collectively, the “Pleadings”) filed to each creditor and party in interest is unnecessary and would be extremely burdensome and costly to the estates, in light of the photocopying, postage, and other expenses associated with such large mailings.

81. The Debtors believe that the Notice Procedures will provide sufficient notice to those parties in interest, while, first, eliminating a significant and burdensome cost to the estates, and second, will limit confusion by parties in interest as to whether they must respond to a particular pleading that does not necessarily affect their interests.

82. In connection with the Notice Procedures, the Debtors contemplate that the Claims Agent will maintain a website on which, inter alia, all docket entries in these cases will be maintained and available, free of charge.

(v) Maintain Existing Bank Accounts

83. The Debtors intend to open debtor in possession bank accounts (“DIP Bank Accounts”) in New York as required under the Bankruptcy Code and the guidelines of the United States Trustee’s Office. However, by motion (the “Cash Management Motion”), the Debtors request that they be allowed to maintain certain of their existing bank accounts (“Continuing Bank”).

Accounts”) and business forms (“Business Forms”). The Continuing Bank Accounts are used for payment of ordinary business expenses and collection of assets. The Continuing Bank Accounts are necessary and essential for the continuation of the Debtors’ business and the realization of the greatest value of the Debtors’ estates.

84. The Debtors believe that it is appropriate and beneficial to continue using the Continuing Bank Accounts in order to avoid substantial disruptions to the Debtors’ wind-down efforts, and adverse economic and operational consequences on the Debtors’ relations with vendors and others.

85. No checks issued from the Continuing Bank Accounts prior to the commencement of this case will be honored, unless authorized by separate order of this Court. The Debtors will immediately advise its banks not to honor pre-petition checks absent an order of the Court. By so advising their banks, the Debtors will achieve the goals of (a) establishing a clear demarcation between pre-petition and post-petition checks and (b) blocking the inadvertent payment of pre-petition checks, without disrupting the Debtors’ ongoing operations.

86. In other Chapter 11 cases, bankruptcy courts have recognized that strict enforcement of bank account closing requirements does not serve the rehabilitative process of Chapter 11. Bankruptcy courts in this district have routinely waived such requirements and replaced them with alternative procedures on a case-by-case basis. A similar authorization is appropriate in this case with respect to the Continuing Bank Accounts.

(vi) Upcoming Anticipated Motions

a. Debtor-in-Possession Financing

87. The Debtors contemplate filing of a motion to approve financing to provide the Debtors the necessary liquidity to properly operate their businesses and meet their administrative obligations. At this time, the Debtors do not anticipate the need for expedited relief, and anticipate seeking approval of such financing on notice.

b. Real Estate Broker

88. The Debtors will also very quickly seek authorization to employ and retain Situs, Inc. as real estate broker pursuant to sections 327(a) and 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Retention of Situs, Inc. is necessary to enable the Debtors to continue to market and sell real estate interests, where a maximum value is obtainable. Therefore, the Debtors determined in their business judgment, that they require the assistance of an experienced real estate broker to assist with the marketing and disposition of the real estate interests.

c. Sales of Properties

89. ARC has obtained an offer for the sale of the Harbor Georgetown property. This property is not currently a real-estate owned property, but the defaulting owner has agreed to voluntarily transfer the property by deed-in-lieu of foreclosure, which will permit ARC to effectuate the sale. ARC anticipates making under Bankruptcy Rule 9019 for the compromise with the borrower, together with a motion to sell the property under Section 363, within the near future.

C. Conclusion

The Debtors believe the protections afforded by Chapter 11 will enable them wind-up their affairs in an orderly fashion and to preserve the value of their assets for the benefit of their creditors.

On Behalf of the Debtors,

LIST OF CREDITORS HOLDING 20 LARGEST UNSECURED CLAIMS

Following is the list of the debtor’s creditors holding the 20 largest unsecured claims. The list is prepared in accordance with Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(d) for filing in this chapter 11 [or chapter 9] case. The list does not include (1) persons who come within the definition of “insider” set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 101, or (2) secured creditors unless the value of the collateral is such that the unsecured deficiency places the creditor among the holders of the 20 largest unsecured claims. If a minor child is one of the creditors holding the 20 largest unsecured claims, state the child’s initials and the name and address of the child’s parent or guardian, such as “A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian.” Do not disclose the child’s name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

(1) Name of creditor and complete mailing address including zip code	(2) Name, telephone number and complete mailing address, including zip code, of employee, agent, or department of creditor familiar with claim who may be contacted	(3) Nature of claim (trade debt, bank loan, government contract, etc.)	(4) Indicate if claim is contingent, unliquidated, disputed or subject to setoff	(5) Amount of claim [if secured also state value of security]

Following is the list of the debtor's creditors holding the 20 largest unsecured claims. The list is prepared in accordance with Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(d) for filing in this chapter 11 [or chapter 9] case. The list does not include (1) persons who come within the definition of "insider" set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 101, or (2) secured creditors unless the value of the collateral is such that the unsecured deficiency places the creditor among the holders of the 20 largest unsecured claims. If a minor child is one of the creditors holding the 20 largest unsecured claims, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

(1) Name of creditor and complete mailing address including zip code	(2) Name, telephone number and complete mailing address, including zip code, of employee, agent, or department of creditor familiar with claim who may be contacted	(3) Nature of claim (trade debt, bank loan, government contract, etc.)	(4) Indicate if claim is contingent, unliquidated, disputed or subject to setoff	(5) Amount of claim [if secured also state value of security]

Following is the list of the debtor’s creditors holding the 20 largest unsecured claims. The list is prepared in accordance with Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(d) for filing in this chapter 11 [or chapter 9] case. The list does not include (1) persons who come within the definition of “insider” set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 101, or (2) secured creditors unless the value of the collateral is such that the unsecured deficiency places the creditor among the holders of the 20 largest unsecured claims. If a minor child is one of the creditors holding the 20 largest unsecured claims, state the child’s initials and the name and address of the child’s parent or guardian, such as “A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian.” Do not disclose the child’s name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

(1) Name of creditor and complete mailing address including zip code	(2) Name, telephone number and complete mailing address, including zip code, of employee, agent, or department of creditor familiar with claim who may be contacted	(3) Nature of claim (trade debt, bank loan, government contract, etc.)	(4) Indicate if claim is contingent, unliquidated, disputed or subject to setoff	(5) Amount of claim [if secured also state value of security]
SEE ATTACHED		All are Direct Lender Claims	All are Contingent Unliquidated Disputed

DECLARATION UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY ON BEHALF OF CORPORATION OR PARTNERSHIP
