Attorneys for Plaintiffs Al-Haramain Islamic Foundation, Inc., Wendell Belew and Asim Ghafoor

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

AL-HARAMAIN ISLAMIC)	MDL Docket No. 06-1791 VRW FOUNDATION, INC., et al.,)
)	CASE MANAGEMENT
Plaintiffs,)	CONFERENCE: FEB. 7, 2008
v.)
)	SUPPLEMENTAL CASE
GEORGE W. BUSH, et al.,)	MANAGEMENT STATEMENT
)	AND [PROPOSED] ORDER Defendants.)
)

Plaintiffs Al-Haramain Islamic Foundation, Inc., Wendell Belew, and Asim Ghafoor respectfully request permission to submit this belated Supplemental Case Management Statement and Proposed Order for the case management conference scheduled in the above-entitled case on February 7, 2008, and request the Court to adopt it as a Supplemental Case Management Order in this case.

SUPPLEMENTAL CASE MANAGEMENT STATEMENT

The Ninth Circuit has remanded this case for this Court “to consider whether FISA preempts the state secrets privilege and for any proceedings collateral to that determination.” Al-Haramain Islamic Foundation, Inc. v. Bush, 507 F.3d 1190, 1206 (9th Cir. 2007).

Additionally, currently pending before this Court is Plaintiffs’ Motion for Partial Summary Judgment of Liability or, Alternatively for Partial Summary Adjudication of Specific Issues Within Claims, which plaintiffs filed in the Oregon district court on October 30, 2006. On March 13, 2007, this Court ordered defendants to file opposition and scheduled the motion for oral argument. The Ninth Circuit, however, stayed those proceedings during the pendency of the appeal. Now that the appeal has been decided, the Ninth Circuit’s stay is lifted and the proceedings on the motion may recommence if this Court finds that FISA preempts the state secrets privilege and permits this litigation to go forward. This Court’s decision on the pending motion is within the scope of the Ninth Circuit’s remand for “proceedings collateral” to the determination whether FISA preempts the state secrets privilege, 507 F.3d at 1206, because a decision on the motion is the inevitable consequence of – and thus collateral to – a determination that FISA preempts the privilege.

Plaintiffs propose that this Court decide the remanded FISA preemption issue within the procedural context of the pending summary judgment/adjudication motion. Plaintiffs propose to submit an amended memorandum in support of the pending motion, incorporating into a single document plaintiffs' arguments on the preemption issue, plaintiffs' prior arguments on the motion, and several new matters that have occurred since the filing of the original motion. If the Court decides that FISA preempts the state secrets privilege, the Court can immediately proceed to the collateral matters and determine (1) plaintiffs' standing, by reference to public information and by in camera and ex parte review of the sealed document filed with the complaint as prescribed by FISA, 50 U.S.C. § 1806(f), and (2) the legality of the challenged warrantless surveillance program, which raises purely legal issues.

Proceeding in this manner – with this Court deciding all pending issues (including FISA preemption, standing, and the legality of the warrantless surveillance program) on plaintiffs' amended motion – will avoid literally years of delay that would otherwise result from consecutive decisions on the various issues and the multiple attendant interlocutory appeals that would likely be sought from each decision.

Plaintiffs are prepared to file their amended memorandum forthwith, along with a declaration containing additional exhibits on the new matters that have occurred since the filing of the original motion. Plaintiffs anticipate that the amended memorandum will be approximately 45 pages in length; plaintiffs thus respectfully request permission to exceed the 25-page limit prescribed by Northern District of California Civil Local Rule 7-2(b).

Plaintiffs are informed that plaintiffs' counsel in the Hepting litigation wish to file a brief as amicus curiae, and that other counsel in the MDL proceedings might also wish to do so. We therefore propose a briefing schedule that includes the filing of amicus curiae briefs and answers thereto.

Plaintiffs propose the following briefing and oral argument schedule:

- Plaintiffs' amended memorandum and declaration due February 15, 2008.
- Defendants' opposition due March 14, 2008
- Plaintiffs' reply and amicus curiae briefs due March 21, 2008
- Answers to amicus curiae briefs due March 28, 2008
- Oral argument April 10, 2008.

On January 29, 2008, plaintiffs' counsel conferred by telephone with defense counsel Anthony Coppolino regarding plaintiffs' proposal for combined briefing and decision of the FISA preemption issue and the pending motion. Mr. Coppolino said he would consider the proposal, but he has not yet responded to plaintiffs' counsel.

Plaintiffs therefore request the Court to make the following Supplemental Case Management Order.
