

San Francisco Hit-and-Run Accident Injures Bicyclist

Wednesday, 29 December 2010

A bicyclist sustained major personal injuries in a hit-and-run accident in San Francisco's Mission District on Christmas morning. At about 12:20 a.m. Saturday, a gray, gold or tan sedan turned from 25th Street to northbound Bartlett Street and hit the bicyclist. The victim was traveling west on 25th. The driver of the sedan fled the scene and the bicyclist was transported to San Francisco General Hospital with life-threatening injuries. Anyone with information related to this investigation is asked to call the San Francisco Police Department at (415) 575-4444.

*According to the California Highway Patrol statistics, there were 22,091 injuries caused by hit-and-run collisions in 2008 alone. California law requires a driver that has been involved in a collision to stop and present his or her license and insurance information, regardless of the level of seriousness or extent of injury. Failing to do may result in criminal charges including a felony charges when a victim sustains serious injuries.

If you or a loved one is injured or dies in a hit and run accident, you are strongly advised to consult with an experienced California Personal Injury Attorney. In hit and run cases, law enforcement does not always have the time or resources to investigate and track down a hit and run driver. A knowledgeable California Personal Injury Lawyer can investigate and hold a hit and run driver responsible for his or her actions. A good California Accident Attorney will advise you of all your rights with regard to a civil claim for damages and recovery under all available insurance policies.

The Demas & Rosenthal personal injury law firm is not currently representing anyone mentioned in this article at the time it was posted. If you were involved in this incident or a similar incident and have questions as to your legal rights and options, call us or another well recognized and respected personal injury law firm. Please do not rely or act solely upon the information provided in this article. Please consider getting a consultation immediately. The best personal injury law firms will provide a free consultation. Demas & Rosenthal will provide a free, confidential consultation to the persons who were not at fault named in this article. The free consultation offer extends to family