

Jonathan Rosenfeld's Nursing Homes Abuse Blog

CNA Arrested After Soliciting Sexual Favors From Resident

Posted by Jonathan Rosenfeld on June 07, 2011

Apparently, a history of criminal financial behavior wasn't enough to discourage the owners of Waterbook Assisted Living from hiring Katonia Davis as a CNA at their facility--- because she wasn't going to be handling any of the finances at the facility.

Yet, just four months into her tenure at the North Carolina assisted living facility, Ms. Davis apparently couldn't control the strong feeling she had for a resident at the facility that she was to care for. Another employee at the facility witnessed Ms. Davis pay the resident $20 for him to perform sexual acts with her.

While Davis was apparently quickly removed from her position by facility administrators and will face criminal charges, this type of incident again demonstrates that need for facilities to screen all job applicants and use common sense before placing an employee with a suspect background into an environment where they will have access to particularly vulnerable patients.

Jonathan Rosenfeld represents victims of nursing home abuse and neglect throughout the country. For more information please visit Nursing Homes Abuse Blog (www.nursinghomesabuseblog.com), Bed Sore FAQ (www.bedsorefaq.com) or call Jonathan directly at (888) 424-5757 (www.rosenfeldinjurylawyers.com).

Related:

Lawsuit Ensues After Housekeeper Brutally Attacks Assisted Living Patient

Nursing Home Abuse: Janitor Accused Of Sexually Exploiting An Alzheimer's Patient

Sheesshh!! Move Along, Nursing Homes Trying To Cover Up Incidents Involving Sexual Abuse

Another Sexual Assault Of A Nursing Home Patient At The Hands Of A Convicted Felon