A Napa County public forum on jobs and economic development will be held 6–8 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 2, at the UC Cooperative Extension Conference Room at 1710 Soscol Ave. in Napa.

Similar forums will be held in each of California’s 58 counties to focus on activities and initiatives that resulted from U.S. Department of Agriculture Rural Development’s “Jobs, Economic Development and Sustainable Communities” report, available at rurdev.usda.gov/ca.

“These forums will provide an opportunity for residents, business owners and community leaders across the state to share ideas on creating jobs and economic opportunities,” said Glenda Humiston, USDA rural development state director.

“Government can help lay the groundwork for economic growth, but the best ideas for continued growth and job creation often come from local and community leaders,” she said. “I look forward to hearing these ideas.”
