ABOUT: Founded in 1874, The Chicago Bar Association is one of the oldest and most active metropolitan bar associations in the United States. The Association’s voluntary membership of 22,000 consists largely of lawyers and judges from Cook County and the State of Illinois. However, The Chicago Bar Association does have a growing out-of-state membership of lawyers who want to take advantage of the Association’s many membership services and benefits.

Jotham S. Stein is an experienced attorney who has represented individuals and companies in a wide variety of business, employment and contract negotiations. Mr. Stein has represented hundreds and hundreds of executives, entrepreneurs, venture capitalists, investors and employees in employment and equity-related negotiations, including during the negotiation of change in control transactions. Mr. Stein has also served as part-time General Counsel of a high-technology Silicon Valley company. Mr. Stein recently authored Executive Employment Law: Protecting Executives, Entrepreneurs and Employees, which Oxford University Press published in June 2011.
