

Cohl / LiveNation Purchasing Agreement

February 3, 2011 by Bob Tarantino

JETLawBlog has an interesting post up about the ongoing dispute between concert impresario Michael Cohl and LiveNation (Upcoming Rolling Stones Tour Fuels the Battle between Live Nation and Michael Cohl) - of particular value is a link to the purchase agreement which memorialized the "divorce" between the parties. The agreement provides an intriguing drafting precedent in a number of respects: from the structuring of the payments and the description of the assets, to, in particular, the manner in which the non-competition provisions were handled.
