

Thanks to Mike Rowe Works Trades Hub

Thanks to Mike Rowe of the Discovery Channel's Dirty Jobs! Mike started his Trades Hub where he collects information from experts in various fields, including construction law. Much to my surprise, Mike decided to add Construction Law Musings to his list of "experts." Musings is lucky to join Melissa Brumback (@melissabrumback) of Construction Law in North Carolina, Scott Wolfe (@scottwolfejr) of Construction Law Monitor, Doug Reiser (@douglasreiser) of the Builders Counsel Blog, and other great bloggers in the construction field. It is truly an honor.

Check out the Trades Hub for insights and great thoughts from Construction Law Musings and all of these other wonderful blogs.

Please check out my Construction Law Musings Blog for more on Virginia construction law and other topics.
