Last month, I asked the California Attorney General’s office for information concerning utilization of the whistleblower hotline mandated by Labor Code § 1102.7. Below are the data provided to me:

Year	Number of Calls
2004	0 (partial records for five months)
2005	62 (partial records for seven months)
2006	167
2007	519
2008	661
2009	821

I also asked for information concerning the number of civil and criminal actions filed by the Attorney General's office as a result of calls to the hotline. The Attorney General's office couldn't provide an answer. The Attorney General's office also couldn't provide any information about any civil fines and penalties obtained. Finally, the Attorney General's office declined to provide any comment on the effectiveness of the hotline.
