Photographs of the scene of the accident, damages to your car, the other car(s) and other property are very helpful in building a case. In addition, your attorney can use witness statements and police reports to prove who is at fault in your case. If another person's negligence or intentional acts are responsible for your car accident, you are entitled to seek damages in civil court.

Time is of the essence in all personal injury cases. The sooner you hire a knowledgeable attorney, the easier it will be to prove your case. Contact us
