

New Equal Opportunity Act for Victoria

Employers in Victoria are reminded that the new Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (Vic) (Act) started to operate from 1 August 2011. Details of the changes which arose as a result of the Act starting to operate are set out in our previous update.

Employers should ensure that they are now familiar with their obligations under the Act, and that they have taken steps to implement the necessary changes to their policies, procedures and employee training to ensure compliance with those obligations.