

Justice Department Files Complaint Against Two Texas State Agencies for Pay Discrimination

(USDOJ: Justice News)

Submitted at 10:11 AM July 11, 2012

The Justice Department today filed a lawsuit against the Texas Department of Agriculture and Texas General Land Office alleging that both state agencies are liable for discrimination against three female employees on the basis of sex, in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, which occurred at Texas Department of Rural Affairs.

Acting Assistant Attorney General for the Antitrust Division Joseph F. Wayland Testifies Before the United States Senate Judiciary Committee

(USDOJ: Justice News)

Submitted at 10:24 AM July 11, 2012

"In our system, antitrust and intellectual property policy function together to provide consumers with high-quality products and services at competitive prices, while at the same time preserving strong incentives for the innovation that creates and improves those products," said Acting Assistant Attorney General Wayland.

U.S. Marshals, State and County Conduct Sex Offender Compliance Check in Marathon County

(U.S. Marshals Service News)

Submitted at 11:54 AM July 11, 2012

U.S. Marshals, State and County Conduct Sex Offender Compliance Check in Marathon County

July 10, 2012 - The U.S. Marshals along with the Wisconsin Department of Corrections Sex Offender Registry Program, the Marathon County Sheriff's

Justice Department Files Complaint Alleging Retaliation by Robertson Fire Protection District in Missouri

(USDOJ: Justice News)

Submitted at 12:00 PM July 11, 2012

The Justice Department today filed a lawsuit against the Robertson Fire Protection District in North Saint Louis County, Mo., for unfairly retaliating against a firefighter who provided testimony against the RFPD, in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended.

Owner of Insulation Service Company Pleads Guilty to Million Dollar Bid-Rigging and Fraud Conspiracies at New York City Hospital

(USDOJ: Justice News)

Submitted at 3:57 PM July 11, 2012

The owner of a former New York City insulation service company pleaded guilty today to a three-count indictment charging him with conspiring to rig bids on contracts for re-insulation services to New York Presbyterian Hospital, conspiring to defraud the Internal Revenue Service and filing a false tax return.

Department, and the Wausau Police Department conducted a residence verification operation for registered sex offenders. On June 26th and June 27th teams checked the addresses of 188 registered sex offenders in Marathon County. At least 6 were found to be non-compliant.