Getty Images (US) Inc. v. F.H.L. Logistics, Inc.
Case No.: 1:14cv20188

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

7. Getty Images is one of the world's leading digital content providers, supplying imagery, video and music to business customers. Getty Images licenses content for a wide variety of uses, including use online, in websites, books, newspapers, magazines, television and film productions, advertisements, marketing materials, products and packaging. Getty Images generates revenue from licensing the rights to use its content, including imagery, and from providing related services.

8. Getty Images was the first company to license imagery via the Internet and today delivers virtually all of its visual content digitally. Visitors to Getty Images' website, www.gettyimages.com, can search through and view millions of images and obtain licenses for those images online.

9. Getty Images owns some of the content that it licenses. Getty Images also acts as the distributor for more than 150,000 content suppliers – contributors, such as individual photographers, illustrators, filmmakers, media organizations, other stock photo agencies, and independent musicians. Content suppliers typically prefer to retain ownership of their work and, as a result, copyright to content remains with the artists in most cases, while Getty Images obtains by contract the right to market, distribute, and license that content to third parties. Some of this content is licensed to Getty Images on an exclusive basis.

10. In or about June 2012, Getty Images identified a photographic image, with the catalog description “200469246-001 (RM) Loading aeroplane with cargo, dusk,” that had been reproduced, displayed, and distributed by Defendant F.H.L. Logistics on its website, www.fhllogistics.com, without authorization. The identified image was at that time and is still today exclusively licensed to Getty Images.

Getty Images (US) Inc. v. F.H.L. Logistics, Inc.
Case No.: 1:14cv20188

11. The photographic image described in the preceding paragraph is the subject of copyright Certificate of Registration VAu 967-849 (dated December 18, 2007). Attached as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of the Certificate of Registration.

12. Getty Images brings this action to recover damages for the harm it has sustained, and for such further relief as sought herein.

COUNT I

(Copyright Infringement, 17 U.S.C. § 501, et seq.)

13. Getty Images repeats and incorporates by this reference each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 12, inclusive.

14. Getty Images is the exclusive licensee of the photographic image that is the subject of this action. Among the rights granted to Getty Images is the exclusive right to market and sublicense the right to copy, reproduce and display the image. Additionally, Getty Images is granted the exclusive right to make and control claims related to infringements of copyrights in the image. A copy of the copyright Certificate of Registration VAu 967-849 issued by the United States Copyright Office, for the subject image, is attached as Exhibit A.

15. Defendant F.H.L. Logistics has reproduced, displayed, distributed and made other infringing uses of the protected image, without authorization by Getty Images, including Defendant's infringing use of that image on www.fhllogistics.com.

16. As a result of its conduct, F.H.L. Logistics is liable to Getty Images for copyright infringement.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Getty Images respectfully requests that this Court grant the following relief:

Getty Images (US) Inc. v. F.H.L. Logistics, Inc.
Case No.: 1:14cv20188

- a. That the Court enter a judgment against Defendant finding that it has infringed Getty Images' rights in the photographic image listed in Exhibit A;
- b. That the Court enter an order, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), declaring that Defendant holds in trust, as constructive trustees for the benefit of Getty Images, all profits received by Defendant from its reproduction, distribution, display or other infringing uses of the photographic image listed in Exhibit A, and requiring Defendant to provide Getty Images a full and complete accounting of all profits received by Defendant;
- c. That the Court order Defendant to pay actual or statutory damages to Getty Images, as follows: actual damages suffered by Getty Images as a result of Defendant's infringement and all profits of defendant that are attributable to that infringement, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b); or statutory damages to the maximum extent permitted by law for Defendant's infringement of copyright, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c);
- d. That the Court order Defendant, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505, to pay full costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, incurred by Getty Images in prosecuting this action;
- e. That the Court order prejudgment interest on the amount of any award to Getty Images; and
