Report on College Credit Card Agreements

PURPOSE

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the “Board”) submits this report in accordance with Section 305 of the Credit Card Accountability Responsibility and Disclosure Act of 2009 (the “Credit CARD Act”), Pub. L. No. 111–24, 123 Stat. 1734 (2009). Section 305(a) of the Credit CARD Act requires the Board to submit to the Congress, and to make available to the public, an annual report that lists certain information submitted to the Board concerning agreements between credit card issuers and institutions of higher education (“institutions”) or certain affiliated organizations, such as alumni associations or foundations, that provide for the issuance of credit cards to college students (“college credit card agreements” or “agreements”).

Pursuant to Title X of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010, responsibility for collecting and submitting to the Congress annual reports regarding college credit card agreements will transfer to the newly-established Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection on the designated transfer date, July 21, 2011.

Information included in this report is also available on the Board’s public website at www.federalreserve.gov/collegecreditcardagreements. In addition, under Section 304 of the Credit CARD Act and the Board’s implementing regulations, 12 C.F.R. § 226.57(b), the public can obtain college credit card agreements between a card issuer and an institution of higher education directly from the institution.

SUBMISSION OF COLLEGE CREDIT CARD AGREEMENTS TO THE BOARD

Section 305 of the Credit CARD Act and the Board’s implementing regulations, 12 C.F.R. § 226.57(d), require credit card issuers to submit to the Board each year a copy of any college credit card agreement between the issuer and an institution of higher education or an alumni organization or foundation affiliated with an institution of higher education (“affiliated organizations”)¹ that was in effect at any time during the preceding calendar year. Issuers also are required to submit the following information with respect to each agreement: (1) the amount of payments made by the issuer to the institution or affiliated organization during the year;² (2) the number of new credit card accounts opened pursuant to the agreement (“college credit card accounts”) during the year; and (3) the number of open college credit card accounts at year-end (regardless of when the account was opened).

Issuers were required to make their initial submission to the Board by February 22, 2010. This initial submission comprised college credit card agreements to which the issuer was a party during 2009 and information regarding payments and accounts as of December 31, 2009.

OVERVIEW OF COLLEGE CREDIT CARD AGREEMENTS

The Board received a total of 1,044 college credit card agreements from seventeen credit card issuers. In 2009, these issuers made total payments of $83,462,712 to institutions and organizations pursuant to these agreements. The total number of new college credit card accounts opened pursuant to these agreements during 2009 was 53,164. The total number of college credit card accounts opened pursuant to these agreements during or prior to 2009 that remained open as of December 31, 2009, was 2,008,714. As discussed below, additional information regarding payments and accounts is provided in the Appendix to this report.

This report is based on information and agreements submitted to the Board by card issuers. Because some agreements address the provision of both credit cards

1. In some cases, issuers submitted to the Board agreements reached with other types of organizations, such as fraternities, sororities, and professional or trade organizations, that relate to the issuance of credit cards to college students. Such agreements are included in this report and categorized as agreements with “other organizations.”

2. All payment amounts presented in this report, including in the Appendix, are rounded to the nearest dollar.

and of other financial products (such as deposit accounts), payments made by issuers under these agreements may not be based solely on credit card accounts. In addition, some or all of the accounts opened pursuant to these agreements may have been opened by individuals who are not students (such as alumni, faculty, and staff of an institution of higher education). Furthermore, card issuers' submissions do not include information regarding credit card accounts opened by students independent of these agreements (such as when a student responds to an offer made to the general public).

The Board also notes that, because issuers were required to submit all college credit card agreements to which they were a party at any time during 2009, issuers' submissions may include agreements that terminated in 2009 or 2010, and therefore are no longer in effect. The terms of some agreements may have been amended during 2010 as a result of new requirements imposed under the Credit CARD Act and the Board's implementing regulations. Those revised agreements are not reflected in this report, but will be included in issuers' March 31, 2011, submissions to the Board. The next report submitted to the Congress will include those revised agreements.

Credit Card Issuers

Three credit card issuers accounted for approximately 96 percent of all college credit card agreements submitted to the Board in 2010. FIA Card Services, N.A.

("FIA"), which is a subsidiary of Bank of America Corporation, submitted 906 college credit card agreements, more than fifteen times as many as any other card issuer. In 2009, FIA made payments totaling $61,968,307 to institutions of higher education, affiliated organizations, and other organizations, and opened 38,610 new accounts under its college credit card agreements. As of December 31, 2009, FIA had a total of 1,605,969 open college credit card accounts pursuant to these agreements.

U.S. Bank National Association ND ("U.S. Bank") submitted 60 agreements, the second largest number of agreements submitted by a single issuer. Under these agreements, U.S. Bank made total payments of $2,502,744 to institutions of higher education, affiliated organizations, and other organizations, and opened 7,911 new accounts in 2009. U.S. Bank had a total of 122,163 open college credit card accounts pursuant to these agreements as of December 31, 2009.

Chase Bank USA, N.A. ("Chase") submitted 36 agreements. During 2009, Chase made total payments of $13,892,863 to institutions of higher education, affiliated organizations, and other organizations, and opened 529 new accounts under these agreements. As of December 31, 2009, Chase had a total of 217,917 open college credit card accounts pursuant to these agreements.

1. Golden Key International Honour Society (“Golden Key”) describes itself as “an academic honor society which recognizes and encourages scholastic achievement and excellence among college and university students from all academic disciplines” (www.goldenkey.org/GKIHS/GoldenKeyInDepth/WhatisGoldenKey). Golden Key’s agreement with FIA provides for the issuance of credit cards to college students.

2. Heritage Affinity Enterprises, LLC (Heritage) describes itself as “a privately held company, committed to the concept of a competitive rewards credit card that allows its members to simultaneously support Israel through every purchase” (www.hasadvantage.com/faq.asp). Heritage’s agreement with U.S. Bank provides for the issuance of credit cards to college students.

Institutions of Higher Education, Affiliated Organizations, and Other Organizations

As presented in table 2, nearly 40 percent of agreements (413 agreements) submitted to the Board were between a credit card issuer and an institution of higher education; an additional 33 percent (348 agreements) were between an issuer and an alumni association. Issuers also submitted eighty-four agreements with foundations, 180 agreements with other organizations, and nineteen agreements that were between the issuer and more than one institution or organization.³

3. For example, an agreement to which both a university and that university’s affiliated alumni association were parties.

Number of Open College Credit Card Accounts

Table 3 presents the ten college credit card agreements with the largest numbers of open college credit card accounts as of December 31, 2009. These ten agreements represent approximately 18 percent of all open college credit card accounts as of December 31, 2009. However, most agreements had fewer than 1,000 open accounts at the end of 2009. As of December 31, 2009, agreements with fewer than 1,000 total open accounts represented approximately 67 percent of all submitted agreements, and agreements with fewer than 100 total open accounts represented approximately 13 percent of all submitted agreements.

Payments by Credit Card Issuers

Table 4 presents the ten largest payments by a credit card issuer to a higher education institution or organization under a college credit card agreement during 2009. These payments represent approximately 22 percent of all payments by issuers in 2009.

Number of New Accounts

Table 5 presents the ten college credit card agreements with the largest number of accounts opened during 2009. These ten agreements represent approximately 16 percent of all college credit card accounts opened during 2009.

DETAILED INFORMATION ABOUT AGREEMENTS SUBMITTED TO THE BOARD

Pursuant to Section 305 of the Credit CARD Act, this report summarizes the information submitted to the Board regarding the terms of college credit card agreements and the payments made and accounts opened under those agreements. The Appendix to this report provides a detailed listing of the following information about each college credit card agreement: (1) the name of the institution or organization; (2) the type of institution or organization;⁴ (3) the city and state where the institution or organization is located; (4) the name of the issuer; (5) the amount of payments made by the issuer to the institution or organization pursuant to the agreement during 2009; (6) the number of new accounts opened pursuant to the agreement during 2009; and (7) the number of open accounts under the agreement as of December 31, 2009 (regardless of when the account was opened). The table is organized alphabetically by the name of the institution or organization.

The complete text of each agreement submitted to the Board is available on the Board's public website at www.federalreserve.gov/collegecreditcardagreements.

4. The Appendix to this report presents information regarding four categories of institutions or organizations: "University" refers to an institution of higher education, as defined in sections 101 and 102 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. § 1001 and 1002); "Alumni Association" refers to an alumni organization affiliated with an institution of higher education; and "Foundation" refers to a foundation affiliated with an institution of higher education. In some cases, issuers submitted to the Board agreements with other types of organizations, such as fraternities, sororities, and professional or trade associations, that relate to the issuance of credit cards to college students. "Other" refers to such agreements with other types of organizations.
