Work Injuries, Including Construction Site Injury Claims, Should Be Handled By An Experienced Lawyer

If you have been injured at a job site, you should hire a lawyer who has experience with construction and labor law cases. At The Underwood Law Firm, you will always receive exceptional customer service from an experienced attorney. You will always receive a free consultation. You can either get the consultation by phone at (315)445-3005, by appointment, we can travel to your residence or you can just email us at: SyracuseAttorney@gmail.com. Whatever your choice, it is up to you. You should act quickly though, if you wait too long your claims can expire under New York Law.

We are conveniently located outside of downtown Syracuse in Fayetteville, NY. We always offer free parking in our attached parking lot.

Below are some of the typical types of injury claims we handle:

- Falling debris
- Trench collapses
- Scaffolding accidents (falling accidents)
- Ladder falls
- Broken ladders or broken scaffoldings
- Burns and electrocutions
- Heavy machinery injury
- Auto accident with work truck

The typical types of clients we can help include:

- Construction workers
- TV repairmen
- Telephone repairmen
- Movers
