

Jonathan Rosenfeld's Nursing Homes Abuse Blog

Dementia Patient Missing From Chicago Nursing Home

Posted by Jonathan Rosenfeld on February 01, 2011

With a winter storm quickly approaching, Chicago Police are seeking the help of the public in locating Lidia Constantinesco. Seventy-nine-year-old Constantinesco was a patient at Alshore Nursing Home, located on Chicago's Northwest-side. Ms. Constantinesco suffers from diabetes and dementia.

Her whereabouts are unknown as she walked out of the facility with an unknown man, whom she told staff was her brother.

Soon after she left the Chicago facility, staff learned that Ms. Constantinesco does not in fact have a brother. A photo of this missing nursing home patient can be seen here.

If you have any information regarding this incident, police are asking that you contact Belmont Special Victims Unit at (312) 744-8200.

Jonathan Rosenfeld represents victims of nursing home abuse and neglect throughout the country. For more information please visit Nursing Homes Abuse Blog (www.nursinghomesabuseblog.com), Bed Sore FAQ (www.bedsorefaq.com) or call Jonathan directly at (888) 424-5757 (www.rosenfeldinjurylawyers.com).

Related:

Cops: Woman missing from N. Side nursing home may have dementia Chicago Tribune, January 29, 2011

Jonathan Rosenfeld represents victims of nursing home abuse and neglect throughout the country. For more information please visit Nursing Homes Abuse Blog (www.nursinghomesabuseblog.com), Bed Sore FAQ (www.bedsorefaq.com) or call Jonathan directly at (888) 424-5757 (www.rosenfeldinjurylawyers.com).