

Sacramento Hit-and-Run Accident Injures Bicyclist

Written by David Rosenthal

A bicyclist suffered major injuries in a Sacramento hit-and-run accident on Thursday morning. He was hit by a black Mercedes Bradshaw near Micron Avenue. The biker was thrown off his bike and the driver of the Mercedes left the scene. The victim was taken immediately to the hospital. The Sacramento-hit-and-run accident remains under investigation. The police report indicates driver of the Mercedes may have been speeding.

California law requires that a driver that has been involved in a collision to stop and provide his or her license and insurance information, regardless of the level of seriousness or extent of injury. Failing to do so can result in criminal charges including a felony hit & run charge when a victim sustains serious bodily injury. CHP statistics indicate that 22,091 safe drivers were injured in 2008 by irresponsible drivers who caused hit and run collision.

If you or a loved one is injured or dies in a hit and run accident, you are strongly advised to consult with an experienced Sacramento Personal Injury Attorney. In hit and run cases, law enforcement does not always have the time or resources to investigate and track down a hit and run driver. A knowledgeable Sacramento Personal Injury Lawyer can investigate and hold a hit and run driver responsible for his or her actions. A good California Auto Accident Attorney will advise you of all your rights with regard to a civil claim for damages and recovery under all available insurance policies.

The Demas & Rosenthal personal injury law firm is not currently representing anyone mentioned in this article at the time it was posted. If you were involved in this incident or a similar incident and have questions as to your legal rights and options, call us or another well recognized and respected personal injury law firm. Please do not rely or act solely upon the information provided in this article. Please consider getting a consultation immediately. The best personal injury law firms will provide a free consultation. Demas & Rosenthal will provide a free, confidential consultation to the persons who were not at fault named in this article.