

WORK MADE FOR HIRE AGREEMENT

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

For and in consideration of the payment of _____ ($_____), the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the undersigned, _____ (“Assignor”), does hereby agree and acknowledge that he/she was retained by _____, a _____ Company (“Assignee”) to create _____ (the “Work”) and the Work was created at the direction of “Assignee,” and is a work made for hire, as defined by the Copyright Act of 1976, and further, that the Assignee shall be deemed the author of the aforementioned Work, from its inception; and that the same shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Assignee, including the world-wide copyright therein.

The foregoing notwithstanding, should a court of competent jurisdiction determine that the Work does not constitute a work made for hire, then the undersigned, Assignor, for and in consideration of the payment described above, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, does hereby assign, transfer, and set over to Assignee, its successors and assigns forever, all its right, title, and interest in and to the Work, together with any and all of its existing copyrights therein including, throughout the United States of America and the World, and any and all rights of every kind, nature, or description attaching to or which may pertain to or is included in the copyright thereof in the United States of America and the World.

Further, if a court of competent jurisdiction determines the Work has not been assigned to Assignee; Assignor, via this document, grants Assignee a perpetual, exclusive license in the Work for all rights granted the author of a work under the U.S. Copyright Act.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed the foregoing instrument on this _____ day of _____, 200__.
