FLORIDA DRIVER IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

Florida law required that anyone requesting a hearing for possible early reinstatement of a suspended or revoked driving privilege, prior to the expiration of the suspension or revocation period must enroll in the appropriate Drive Improvement or Alcohol Education course. However, if a person is convicted of DUI and applies for early reinstatement, they must show proof of DUI School Completion. Habitual Traffic Offenders must also show proof of school completion.

YOU MUST PRESENT THE ITEMS MARKED BELOW AT THE TIME OF THE HEARING:

- You must present proof of completion of the appropriate Driver Improvement school to which you have been referred.
- You must present proof of enrollment in the appropriate Driver Improvement school to which you have been referred. IF THIS SCHOOL IS NOT COMPLETED WITHIN 90 DAYS OF REINSTATEMENT, YOUR LICENSE WILL BE CANCELLED.
- A list of your traffic record, or certification that you have no record from the County Court Clerk of your resident county. The letter must include all traffic offenses and adjudications, including offense dates which occurred in the last 30 days, and all pending traffic cases against you during the past year. DO NOT OBTAIN A DRIVING RECORD.
