The Michigan Supreme Court distributed on September 15 its order lists for September 9 and 10. Its September 9 order list denied three applications for leave to appeal and dismissed two cases on stipulation. Its September 10 order list denied 135 applications for leave to appeal, closed one case, denied an application to appeal prior to a Court of Appeals' decision, called for the Macomb County Prosecuting Attorney to respond to an application, and remanded one case to a trial court for a ministerial correction to a sentence and another to the Court of Appeals for reconsideration.

The September 10 list also denied 15 motions for reconsideration, which seems to fulfill the expectation that parties would react to the Court's recent reconsiderations and reversals of its own decisions by filing more motions for reconsideration.
