

Jonathan Rosenfeld's Nursing Homes Abuse Blog

Long-Time Chicagoland Nursing Home Gets Bought Out By Nearby Hospital

Posted by Jonathan Rosenfeld on May 02, 2011

Crain's Chicago Business is reporting that Resurrection Health Care will be acquiring Ballard Nursing Home in Des Plaines, IL. Under the terms of the purchase, Ballard will continue to operate under its existing name as it gets absorbed by the the larger health care operator.

Resurrection Health Care currently operates six hospital and six nursing homes in the Chicagoland area including:

Hospitals

- Holy Family Medical Center
- Our Lady of the Resurrection Medical Center
- Resurrection Medical Center
- Saint Francis Hospital

Jonathan Rosenfeld represents victims of nursing home abuse and neglect throughout the country. For more information please visit Nursing Homes Abuse Blog (www.nursinghomesabuseblog.com), Bed Sore FAQ (www.bedsorefaq.com) or call Jonathan directly at (888) 424-5757 (www.rosenfeldinjurylawyers.com).

- Saint Joseph Hospital
- Saints Mary and Elizabeth Medical Center

Nursing Homes

- Holy Family Nursing and Rehabilitation Center – Des Plaines
- Maryhaven Nursing and Rehabilitation Center – Glenview
- Resurrection Life Center – Chicago
- Resurrection Nursing and Rehabilitation Center – Park Ridge
- Saint Benedict Nursing and Rehabilitation Center – Niles
- Villa Scalabrini Nursing and Rehabilitation Center – Northlake

Interestingly, also as part of the acquisition, Ballard will assume 'non-profit' status as are the other Resurrection Health Care facilities. Read more about this acquisition of a Chicago Nursing Home here.

Related:

Nursing Home Spotlight: Ballard Nursing Center, Des Plaines, Illinois

Nursing Home Spotlight: St. Francis NSG & Rehab Center, Evanston, IL

States Move To More Transparency Regarding Medical Malpractice & Hospital Errors

Not All Non-Profit Nursing Homes Operate Under With Patients Best Interest In Mind