THIS MATTER having been opened to the Court by Adamar of New Jersey, Inc. and Manchester Mall, Inc., the within debtors and debtors-in-possession (the “Debtors”), by and through their counsel, Cole, Schotz, Meisel, Forman & Leonard, P.A., upon motion for an Order: (i) establishing a bar date for filing certain Chapter 11 administrative expense claims, (ii) approving form, manner and sufficiency of notice thereof, and (iii) approving proof of administrative expense claim form (the “Motion”);¹ and the Court having considered the moving papers, the objections thereto, if any, and the arguments of counsel, if any; and good and sufficient notice of the Motion having been provided to all parties in interest as set forth in the affidavit of service filed with the Court; and good cause appearing for the entry of this Order,

IT IS ORDERED as follows:

1. Pursuant to Section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 3003(c)(3) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, all entities, including individuals, partnerships, corporations, estate, trusts and governmental units holding a claim as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(5) against the Debtors that constitute an Administrative Expense Claim (hereinafter defined), must file a request for an allowance of such Administrative Expense Claim with Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC (“Kurtzman”), stating the amount of such claim in U.S.

¹ All capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the same meanings ascribed to them in the Application submitted in support of the Motion (the “Application”).

Dollars, and attaching all documents supporting entitlement to an Administrative Expense Claim; provided, however, that claimants shall be permitted to supplement any attached documentation as needed to support their Administrative Expense Claim in the event said Claim is disputed.

Without otherwise limiting the foregoing, all parties to executory contracts or unexpired leases not previously rejected by Court Order shall file an Administrative Expense Claim identifying the amount necessary to cure any past due indebtedness under such executory contract or unexpired lease from and after April 29, 2009 (the "Filing Date"). Administrative Expense Claims shall be deemed timely filed only if they bear an original signature, are sent by regular mail, overnight mail or hand delivery and are actually received by Kurtzman at Tropicana AC Claims Processing, c/o Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC, 2335 Alaska Avenue, El Segundo, CA 90245 - T: 866-967-0677 - on or before 45 DAYS FROM THE CLOSING DATE (the "Administrative Expense Claims Bar Date"). Administrative Expense Claims shall not be deemed filed if received in any other manner, such as by facsimile, telecopy or other electronic submission, including electronic mail transmission.

2. For purposes of this Order, an Administrative Expense Claim is a Claim (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(5)) for payment of an administrative expense of a kind specified in Section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and entitled to priority pursuant to Section 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, including, but not limited to, the actual, necessary costs and expenses, incurred on or after the Filing Date, of preserving the Debtors' estates and operating the Debtors'
