2. Counsel for the parties then stipulated (Dkt. 725 in 06-md-1791, Dkt. 37 in 07-cv-1115 (filed Apr. 27, 2010)) to a revised briefing schedule under which defendants were to renew their dispositive motion by May 27, 2010; plaintiffs were to file an opposition to defendants' renewed motion and renew plaintiffs' cross-motion for summary judgment by June 24, 2010; defendants were to reply and file an opposition to plaintiffs' cross-motion by July 15, 2010; and plaintiffs were to file a cross-reply by August 5, 2010. The Court issued an order adopting the revised briefing schedule pursuant to stipulation on April 28, 2010 (Dkt. 726 in 06-md-1791, Dkt. 38 in 07-cv-1115).

9 3. Defendants filed their renewed motion on May 27, 2010 (Dkt. 731 in 06-md-1791,
10 Dkt. 39 in 07-cv-1115).

4. Plaintiffs and defendants, through counsel, hereby submit this revised stipulation to extend the time for submission of plaintiffs' opposition and renewed motion, defendants' reply, and plaintiffs' cross-reply, and request that the Court make this stipulation an order of the Court.

14 5. The enlargement of time is necessary to accommodate other litigation burdens on 15 plaintiffs' counsel. Undersigned counsel, Mr. Kadidal, is the sole active attorney on this case and is 16 also managing attorney of the Guantánamo litigation at CCR. Since the filing of the government's 17 motion, another CCR attorney responsible for Guantánamo habeas litigation was incapacitated by 18 illness and confined indefinitely to bed rest, making it impossible for that attorney to further litigate 19 habeas cases (which would require visits to the base and to a secure facility in the Washington, 20 D.C. area for access to classified factual information), and resulting in emergency reassignment of 21 her habeas litigation responsibilities to Mr. Kadidal and one other attorney also already possessing 22 security clearance.

6. There has been one previous modification of the original schedule, as described above, which was stipulated to in order to accommodate burdens on defendants' counsel. No prejudice will result from the requested enlargement of time and, as there are no further deadlines currently scheduled in the case, it will not affect any other schedule for the case.
