The city of Duluth is located in northeast Minnesota and is home to both historic roots of the north, as well as, a diverse population of native northerners and foreign born immigrants. Duluth is the hub of the Minnesota northland for such cities as Cloquet, Hermantown, Proctor, Two Harbors, Hibbing, and Superior, Wisconsin.

Total population is approximately 85,000. According to U.S. census data:

12.5% of the population is foreign born

19.5% speak another language, other than English, within the home

15% of the population is non-white or non-black, i.e., they are Hispanic, Asian, etc.

The central U.S. Immigration office and Immigration Court that serves Duluth and Minnesota, generally, is located in Bloomington, MN. This means that even though you may live in Duluth, if you are seeking a work visa, family sponsorship, green card, K-1 fiance visa or facing deportation, you will need an immigration attorney who is familiar with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services – USCIS, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement – ICE, and the Immigration Court in Bloomington. Cundy and Martin, LLC, is located in Bloomington, MN, and serves clients out of Duluth while its main office is located in Bloomington, near USCIS, ICE, and the Federal Immigration Court, to address the immigration needs and concerns of its diverse clientele.

Call or email our office if you need immigration assistance and Vincent Martin will gladly help you. Mr. Martin is a Partner at Cundy & Martin, LLC, and heads the Immigration Practice Group. Vincent represents employers, business personnel, investors, families seeking to sponsor other family members, students, asylees, and those facing deportation with all areas of immigration law. Vincent has helped countless clients with work visas, family visas, and deportation defense.
