

COVID-19 Update – United Arab Emirates

Friday June 12, 2020

Category	Recent Developments
Economic Measures	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• HH Sheikh Humaid bin Rashid Al Nuaimi has issued an Emiri Decree pertaining to the third governmental incentive package to support Ajman’s economic sector. (Link)
Health & Safety	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• On June 11, the UAE saw 479 new cases (-20.5% from the previous day) of the coronavirus, bringing the total to 40,986 total confirmed cases. (Link)• According to a survey conducted by Deep Knowledge Group, the UAE is among the top countries in the world for its coronavirus response. (Link)• The Abu Dhabi Department of Health has launched a unified platform to support research and development efforts in the fight against the coronavirus. (Link)
Travel	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The UAE has launched a campaign to bring 200,000 residents stranded abroad back to the UAE. (Link)• Flydubai extends its salary cuts and puts pilots on unpaid leave to alleviate the financial burdens imposed by the coronavirus. (Link)• Etihad Airways has launched its passenger schedule for July. The schedule includes 42 destinations. (Link)• Emirates Airlines announces four flights between Dubai and Cairo on June 14, 18, 19 and 21. (Link)
Daily Life	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Dubai Police and Dubai Sports Council held a workshop on Thursday with sporting events security firms to discuss the main issues relating to the return of spectators to sports events under the shadow of the coronavirus. (Link)• 30 percent of Sharjah government employees are heading back to the office starting June 14. (Link)