How to Remove a Burglary Charge from My Record
By: Jeremy Geigle, Attorney at Law
JacksonWhite, P.C.

In Arizona, burglary is an extremely serious felony charge. Depending on the area that was burglarized, burglary crimes can be charged as a class 4 felony up to a class 2 felony. In some cases, however, even a crime as serious as burglary can be set aside or removed from your record. To process a motion to set aside a burglary conviction there are certain procedures and restrictions that you must follow. If you are looking for a fresh start, you can begin by consulting with an Arizona criminal defense attorney who can assess your case and help you clean up your past.

Jeremy Geigle is a criminal defense attorney and shareholder at JacksonWhite. He has been practicing over 8 years and has handled thousands of felony and misdemeanor counts.
