A three-vehicle Orange car crash injured two drivers, sending one driver to the hospital with possible life-threatening injuries, according to a news report.

The Orange Police Department reported that a 24-year-old woman driving a Honda Civic turned left from Solana Drive onto Chapman and into the path of an oncoming armored bank truck. The truck collided with the driver's side of the Honda.

A woman driving a Lexus ES350 swerved to avoid the crash, but collided with the back of the armored truck. The Lexus driver, estimated to be in her 60s, was taken to UCI Medical Center in Orange for treatment of airbag deployment injuries.

The driver of the Honda Civic had to be cut free of the wreckage by firefighters and was taken to Western Medical Center-Santa Ana with possible life-threatening injuries. No one in the armored truck was injured.
