The Seneca County Board of Supervisors says an Ovid man, who has become engaged since his assault and arson conviction in January, may no longer qualify for a public defender for his appeal.

The woman whom Eric Harris, 35, of 3026 county Route 138, apparently plans to marry is Deborah Mazur, 41, of 2880 Sandhill Road, Newark. She is the woman he assaulted last year.

County Attorney Steven Getman said Tuesday that news of the Harris-Mazur engagement was published recently in the Finger Lakes Times newspaper in Geneva. No date for the wedding was announced, Getman said.

Last week, county supervisors told Getman ...
