Law360 Bankruptcy Editorial Advisory Board

Law360, New York (February 24, 2016, 6:20 PM ET) -- Law360 is pleased to announce the formation of its 2016 Bankruptcy editorial advisory board.

The purpose of the editorial advisory board is to get feedback on Law360's coverage and to gain insight from experts in the field on how best to shape future coverage.

The members of the 2016 Bankruptcy Law360 editorial advisory board are:

Seth H. Lieberman, Pryor Cashman LLP

Seth H. Lieberman is a partner in the bankruptcy, reorganization and creditors' rights group in Pryor Cashman's New York office. He primarily represents creditors in complex Chapter 11 cases, bringing significant experience representing both indenture trustees and agents in large-scale bankruptcies like those of AMR Corp., Momentive Performance Materials Inc., Colt Defense LLC and Caesars Entertainment Operating Co. Inc.

Rachel Ehrlich Albanese, Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP

Rachel Albanese is senior counsel in Akin Gump's financial restructuring department at the firm's New York office. She represents debtors, creditors and other parties in a wide range of restructuring matters, including Chapter 11 cases, out-of-court workouts and cross-border insolvency proceedings.

Ana Alfonso, Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP

Ana Alfonso is a partner in Willkie's business reorganization and restructuring department in New York. She is a creditors' rights advocate with extensive experience representing financial institutions in bankruptcy proceedings and out-of-court restructurings. She advises administrative agents, lender groups and bilateral credit providers on difficult credits of all sizes.

Emanuel Grillo, Baker Botts LLP

Emanuel "Manny" Grillo, a Baker Botts partner, has represented troubled companies and all classes of stakeholders of troubled companies in both bankruptcy cases and out-of-court workouts for more than 20 years. He also represents purchasers of distressed assets and has significant experience in bankruptcy and related litigation.

James Walter Grudus, AT&T Inc.

James Grudus is AT&T's chief creditors' rights counsel and advises on distressed finance, restructuring, insolvency and bankruptcy issues for the telecom's worldwide operations. For 20 years he has worked with business debtors, creditors committees, creditors, trustees and post-confirmation trusts and on consumer issues. He has particular experience in complex distressed M&As, the intersection of IP and insolvency issues, and cross-border restructurings.

Jonathan P. Guy, Orrick Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP

Jonathan Guy is a litigation partner at Orrick and represents clients in complex, high-profile commercial litigation matters in state and federal trial and appellate courts throughout the U.S. He has 20 years of experience in a wide variety of litigation matters. In recent years, his practice has focused on bankruptcy litigation, particularly for energy and commodity companies.

Anastasia Kaup, Ropes & Gray LLP

Anastasia Kaup's practice at Ropes & Gray focuses on complex financing, restructuring, bankruptcy, distressed investing, securitization and mergers and acquisitions transactions, as well as general corporate matters. She represents and advises a wide range of clients, including lenders, borrowers, trustees, investors and others involved in transactions at the intersection of finance and bankruptcy.

Jill Nicholson, Foley & Lardner LLP

Jill Nicholson is the national chair of Foley & Lardner's bankruptcy and business reorganizations practice. She specializes in complex bankruptcy and restructuring in the securities, financial services, real estate, and manufacturing areas. She also serves as an adjunct professor of bankruptcy law.

Cassandra Porter, Lowenstein Sandler LLP

Cassandra Porter is counsel to Lowenstein Sandler's bankruptcy and creditors' rights group, where she focuses on representing debtors, unsecured creditors and nonprofits in commercial matters and indigent consumers pro bono. She also advises startups and entrepreneurs and is working toward a Certified Information Privacy Professional/United States certification.

Michael Riela, Vedder Price PC

Michael Riela is a shareholder in the bankruptcy and creditors' rights group at Vedder Price. His practice focuses on bankruptcy and out-of-court workouts. He acts on behalf of banks, funds, indenture trustees, debtors, trade creditors, contract counterparties, and other significant parties in restructuring matters, as well as in corporate finance and litigation matters.

Mark Salzberg, Squire Patton Boggs LLP

Mark Salzberg is a partner in the restructuring and insolvency practice in Squire Patton Boggs's Washington, D.C., office. He represents debtors, creditors and committees in bankruptcy and out-of-court workouts and also represents buyers in distressed asset sales. He is a former member of the D.C. Bar Board of Governors.

George W. Shuster Jr., WilmerHale

George W. Shuster Jr. is a partner in WilmerHale's bankruptcy and financial restructuring group in the firm's New York and Boston offices. He represents creditors and committees in debt restructurings and insolvency proceedings, and buyers in distressed asset sales. He has particular expertise at the intersection of intellectual property and insolvency law, in cross-border insolvency matters and with structured finance arrangements.
