

A DOG'S LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

By: Sabrina Winters, Attorney at Law, PLLC

If you have ever owned a pet, you know the special place they hold in your heart. I pray that our "Biscuit" knows the special place he holds in our hearts and that he will be with us for a long time to come! WARNING...I would have a box of tissues handy!

Before humans die, they write their last Will & Testament, and give their home and all they have to those they leave behind.

If, with my paws, I could do the same, this is what I'd ask...

To a poor and lonely stray I'd give:

My happy home,

My bowl,

My cozy bed,

My soft pillows and all my toys,

The lap which I loved so much,

The hand that stroked my fur and the sweet voice which spoke my name,

I'd will to the sad scared shelter dog the place I had in my human's heart, of which there seemed no bounds.

So when I die please do not say, "I will never have a pet again, for the loss and pain is more than I can stand.” Instead go find an unloved dog; one whose life has held no joy or hope and give MY place to him.

This is the only thing I can give...the love I left behind.
