

Why Choose Us?

We meet our clients in a scheduled consultation. In that meeting, we discuss your particular issues and strategies for accomplishing your goals. We will discuss in detail and decide at that meeting whether moving forward with our Unique Process is appropriate.

A well-crafted Customized Protective Estate Plan™ needs to do more than just protect your assets. It must also accurately reflect your desires, protect you and your family members, and plan for your unique situation.

To ensure your Customized Protective Estate Plan™ effectively addresses all of your needs and reflects your desires, we like to gather as much information about you as possible early in the process. The more information you can supply ahead of our visit, the more productive our meeting should be.

When you are ready to schedule a consultation, please call or complete the Request a Consultation form and we will give you a call to schedule.
