

Bay Area Reopening Tracker

CLICK HERE FOR STATEWIDE REOPENING GUIDANCE (updated May 18, 2021)
County	Tier	Current Primary Order	Additional Current Orders, Summaries, and Press Releases	Notes
Alameda	Orange	January 25, 2021 Health Officer Order No. 21-01	April 2, 2021 updates regarding gatherings and travel	The January 25 Order announces that the county will follow the statewide reopening framework based on its tier assignment. The April 2 updates reflect updates to that statewide framework.
Contra Costa	Orange	March 25, 2021 Health Officer Order No. HO-COVID19-43 (repeal of local orders)	Contra Costa County Health Service's summary sheet titled "Contra Costa County Openings at a Glance"	Local orders repealed March 25, 2021, county rules now align with statewide reopening framework. Moved to Orange tier April 7.
Marin	Yellow	Health Officer's Risk Reduction Order	MarinRecovers.com's Guidelines Businesses describing reopening rules	The Risk Reduction Order was updated April 28, 2021, to align with statewide rules on mask wearing, gatherings and business operations.
Napa	Orange	Board of Supervisor's November 10, 2020 update to resolution for safe and healthy business operations	Health and Human Services' County-specific guidance for specific industries	Local order tracks state rules based on tier assignment. Moved to Orange tier April 7, 2021.
San Francisco	Yellow	May 20, 2021 order	Directives for specific industries	Moved to Yellow tier May 6, 2021 to allow many businesses to operate with certain capacity limits. New guidance for many industries posted May 20, 2021.
San Mateo	Yellow	None	Health Officer's supplemental statements and orders	County follows statewide reopening framework for businesses. Local masking and distancing orders rescinded May 11, 2021. Moved to Yellow tier May 13, 2021.

Santa Clara	Yellow	May 18, 2021 Health Officer's Order	County Business Guidance	Revised health order posted May 18, 2021, provides risk reduction methods and guidance for individuals and businesses.
Sonoma	Orange	June 18, 2020 Health Officer's Stay-at-Home Order (C19-15), as amended September 23, 2020.	January 28, 2021 Health Officer Order for quarantine of people exposed to COVID-19	Local order tracks state rules based on tier assignment. Moved to Orange tier April 7, 2021. Appx. B (Face Covering Requirements) to Order C19-15 rescinded May 24, 2021.
Solano	Orange	September 1, 2020 Shelter-in-Place Order aligning with statewide rules	June 1, 2021 County Press Release announcing return to Orange tier	Local order tracks state rules based on tier assignment. Moved to orange tier June 2, 2021.
Tier Key – Yellow: Most indoor business operations are open with modifications; Orange: Some indoor business operations are open with modifications; Red: Some nonessential indoor business operations are closed				