FBI Warns of Retaliatory Cyber-Attack from Iran

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) is warning of a heightened likelihood of Iranian cyber-attacks following the escalation of tension between the U.S. and Iran. This follows the warning last week by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). The FBI and DHS issued a bulletin to law enforcement groups warning of potential physical and cyber-attacks on the U.S. Read more

Knowledge is Power: California Attorney General Issues Advisory on CCPA

California Attorney General Xavier Becerra said last week that “knowledge is power, and in today’s world knowledge is derived from data. When it comes to your own data, you should be in control...” These words came in an Advisory highlighting California consumers’ rights under the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA). The Advisory outlined several areas highlighting consumer rights under the CCPA, which went into effect on January 1, 2020, including a description of the new data broker registry law. We’ve written extensively on the CCPA this past year and what it means for California consumers and businesses. Read more

Help with Yelp: Posting Personal Information in Response to a Negative Review Can Land You in Hot Water

Virtually every company that provides goods or services to the public will, at some point, have a negative review posted online by a dissatisfied consumer. While such reviews are understandably upsetting, a company should not respond in kind with negative comments about the reviewer and certainly should not reveal personal or sensitive information about them.
