Be Safe, Avoid DUI Arrests over Memorial Day Weekend

The forecast is calling for a warm, sunny holiday. However you are celebrating Memorial Day, please be cautious of stepped up law enforcement in Orlando and across Central Florida. It's likely police officers will be vigilant for DUI incidents over the weekend.

With the excellent weather and the long weekend, no doubt many people will be getting boats on the water this weekend. Remember that you can be arrested for a DUI while boating. In just about any of Florida's waterways, you can be stopped for DUI just as if you were in a car. It is legal to consume alcohol on your boat, but if you become impaired you can be arrested. Be cautious of dehydration and heat exhaustion that can worsen the effects of alcohol.

If you are arrested for DUI, you have certain rights. Our experienced defense attorneys can help you develop a plan for challenging your DUI, and we can make sure your rights are protected.

If you have been arrested for DUI in Orlando, Osceola, Seminole, Orange County or anywhere in Central Florida, please contact the Umansky Law Firm to schedule a free and confidential consultation with an experienced DUI attorney.
