

Broadcaster's Calendar for 2012 - Dates for Radio and TV to Remember to Keep Your Station Legal

Posted on December 19, 2011 by David Oxenford

What's up for broadcasters in 2012? What dates do they need to keep on their radar to make sure that they are in legal compliance? Our broadcaster calendar for 2012 is now available and ready for your review. It's an especially busy year - with television license renewals beginning and radio renewals continuing, lowest unit charge windows for primary and general elections, as well as the normal regulatory deadlines - EEO public file reports, quarterly programs/issues lists, children's television reports, noncommercial ownership reports, regulatory fee filing deadlines, and children's television reports. We've even thrown in the dates for the upcoming auction of new FM channels, and a reminder about the the filing dates in connection with SoundExchange royalties for audio streaming. Check out our broadcaster's calendar, and be ready for the year ahead.
