

This Week in Congress

October 8, 2018

SENATE

WATER INFRASTRUCTURE BILL

The chamber will resume consideration of the America's Water Infrastructure Act of 2018 (S. 3021), a bill that would authorize funding for 15 water infrastructure projects related to flood control, navigation, hydropower, drinking water, and the Strategic Petroleum Reserve. The bill, as amended, cleared the House on Sept. 13. A cloture vote is scheduled for 5:30 p.m. on Tuesday.

NOMINATIONS

After the chamber completes its work on the water infrastructure measure, members will turn to the following nominations: Jeffrey Bossert Clark to be an assistant attorney general; Eric S. Dreiband to be an assistant attorney general; James N. Stewart to be an assistant secretary of defense.