An Anaheim motorcycle accident injured a Harley Davidson rider after he collided with a Toyota RAV4 and was thrown into an adjacent traffic lane, according to a news report.

Authorities said that the Harley Davidson was struck by the right rear quarter panel of the Toyota SUV when its driver attempted to change lanes, hitting the motorcyclist and throwing him into an adjacent lane of traffic. The collision sent his motorcycle careening into the driveway of the North Orange County ROP Career & Technical campus.

The motorcyclist was taken to UCI Medical Center for treatment of his injuries.
