		that involve essential services. UPDATE: Chief Justice Beatty amended the statewide order to prohibit foreclosure hearing, foreclosure sales, writs of assistance, and writs of ejectments. This order issued a moratorium in Master-in-Equity (MIE) courts statewide, unless directed otherwise by a subsequent order by the Chief Justice. Further, this only expressly applies to MIE Courts and not to Special Referees, who conduct foreclosures in counties that do not have an appointed MIE. However, Special Referees are likely to align their proceedings with this Order in an abundance of caution. UPDATE: Chief Justice Beatty released a statement clarifying that the order in place does not relieve people of their personal responsibilities or financial obligations. The person or entity pursuing eviction or foreclosure must certify in writing that the real estate at issue is not subject to the limitations and requirements of the CARES Act. For evictions and foreclosures filed before May 6, 2020, the Certification of Compliance must be filed with the court prior to proceeding with the eviction or foreclosure. If a party required to file a Certification of Compliance neglects to do so, the eviction or foreclosure shall terminate without further action taken. UPDATE: The Supreme Court of South Carolina has ordered all currently ordered and scheduled evictions to resume as of May 15, 2020.	March 18, 2020 April 2, 2020 April 30, 2020 May 6, 2020 April 30, 2020	https://www.sccourts.org https://www.sccourts.org https://www.sccourts.org https://www.sccourts.org Certificate of Compliance with the CARES Act (Evictions) Certificate of Compliance with the CARES Act (Foreclosures) https://www.sccourts.org
