CFTC to Hold Public Meeting to Consider Dodd-Frank Effective Dates

Co-authored by Kevin M. Foley and Vanessa L. Colman

The Commodity Futures Trading Commission will hold a public meeting on June 14 at its headquarters in Washington, D.C., to consider the effective date of various provisions of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act. Section 754 of the Dodd-Frank Act provides that "[u]nless otherwise provided in this title, the provisions of this subtitle shall take effect on the later of 360 days after the date of the enactment of this subtitle [i.e., July 16, 2011] or, to the extent a provision of this subtitle requires a rulemaking, not less than 60 days after publication of the final rule or regulation implementing such provision of this subtitle."

Further information about the meeting is available here.
