1. Next WCTC 1450 am radio "NJ Law Talk with Ken Vercammen" set for December 2nd. Hon Glen Berman JSC retired. This part of WCTC's 6pm-7pm Sound Advice radio.

Topic: Rutgers Bias case and Sayreville hazing case. Ken will be doing a radio show on WCTC radio at 6pm every Tuesday for 13 weeks 6-7pm. Each week a special guest will be joining the show to discuss important legal topics.

Listen on WCTC 1450am, or on the Internet at <http://www.wctcam.com> and now on I Heart Radio, just type in WCTC. To call in, dial 732-545-9282 or 888-545-9282 [WCTC]

2. Recent case Supervising chemist can testify in rape case if they independently verified correctness of

DNA results State v. Roach 219 NJ 58 (2014)

Defendant's confrontation rights were not violated by the testimony of the analyst who matched his DNA profile to the profile left at the scene by the perpetrator. Defendant had the opportunity to confront the analyst who personally reviewed and verified the correctness of the two DNA profiles that resulted in a highly significant statistical match inculcating him as the perpetrator. In the context of testing for the purpose of establishing DNA profiles.

3. Defendant has burden to timely object to testimony by pathologist who did not perform the victim's autopsy State v. Williams 219 NJ 89 (2014)

Defendant's failure to object to the admission of the testimony on confrontation grounds and his decision to cross-examine the medical examiner constitute a waiver of his right of confrontation.
