OIG Audit Finds that Majority of Part D Providers Surveyed Used E1 Transactions for Potentially Inappropriate Purposes

The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) requested an audit by the Office of Inspector General (OIG) of Medicare Part D eligibility verification transactions (E1) transactions. The OIG recently released its report, which found that the majority of the providers evaluated used E1 transactions for some inappropriate purpose other than to bill for a prescription or to determine drug coverage billing order.
