

US$14.1bn
value of domestic and inbound deals in 2017,
10-year peak

DUE NORTH: U.S. PRIVATE EQUITY SETS SIGHTS ON CANADA

Canada has earned its name as an attractive destination for private equity investment and the total value of private equity deals keeps reaching new heights.

To learn more about the driving factors behind decisions to invest in Canada, Bennett Jones commissioned Mergermarket to survey Canadian and U.S. private equity executives, as well as members of management teams at Canadian portfolio companies of Canadian and U.S. private equity firms.

WHY CANADA?

Top sectors for PE investment

Top economic aspects of the market
Top two aspects selected

Top structural aspects of the market
Top two aspects selected

LOCAL MARKET KNOWLEDGE IS KEY

Best way to identify a Canadian-based target
Top two aspects selected

Top factors in structuring a deal for a Canadian target

Most used management incentives in Canadian buyouts

Top challenges for due diligence
Top two aspects selected

PRIVATE DEBT

Private equity investors are turning to a new strategy in Canada: private debt.

This can provide higher returns and employ idle capital.

PE firm's use of private debt investments in Canada

73% of PE firm's plan to increase private debt investments in Canada

SHARED PRIORITIES

Rapid business growth and global connections are twin priorities for Canadian companies and U.S. PE firms.

Twin priorities in selling to a PE firm
Top two aspects selected

PE firms say...

Portfolio companies say...

ALIGNING GOALS

Biggest challenges in working together
Top two aspects selected

Portfolio companies say...

PE firms say...

CANADA vs UNITED STATES

Biggest advantage of being owned by a...

Canadian PE firm

U.S. PE firm

