Sign in to Google

Create a Google account if you do NOT already have one

The screenshot shows the 'Create an Account' page on Google Accounts. Red arrows and numbers 1 through 6 are overlaid on the page to indicate the steps:

1. Input your current e-mail address here; that will be your Google sign-in username.
2. Choose a password.
3. Input your location and birthday
4. Type the word verification letters
5. Agree to the Google Terms of Service
6. Click "I accept. Create my account."
